House Approves Medical Care Bill

Senate Expected To Send It To Ike

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House today passed compromise legislation to provide government-financed medical care for persons over 65 not having financial resources to pay for needed treatment.

The senate was expected later today to send the measure to the White House for President Eisenhower's certain signature.

Terms of the new program, worked out yesterday by a Senate-House conference committee, fell short of the rival plans for a broader coverage of benefits supported by Democratic and Republican presidential candidates — Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The new federal-state program would become effective Oct. 1, but it was expected to go into operation gradually.

SLOW START

Backers figured that the program, at least in early years of operation, probably would provide actual benefits each year for less than 10 per cent of the 16 million persons over 65.

Coverage would depend on the extent to which states are willing to share in the cost and the number of elderly persons who can pass "means tests" to be prescribed by each of the participating states.

The medical care plan offers federal grants to states willing to help finance medical care for (1) the 2,400,000 persons over 65 who are on relief rolls and (2) other needy persons over 65 who aren't so destitute they qualify for relief checks for food and housing but still don't have resources enough to pay for medical attention.

OTHER PROVISIONS

Other provisions of the legislation would add at least 700,000 persons to the more than 12 million now on the benefit rolls of the social security program and relax the $1,200 a year "earnings test" for retired workers drawing full benefits.

The legislation repeals the requirement that permanently and totally disabled workers must wait until age 50 to draw social security payments for themselves and their dependents.

House Ignores Ike Plea On Foreign Aid

Stamps Approval On Bill Cutting Requested Funds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House, disregarding a last-minute warning by President Eisenhower that more funds were needed, today gave its final approval to a $3,722,350,000 compromise foreign aid money bill that had been cut more than a half billion dollars below his request.

The action, on a voice vote, sent the compromise bill to the Senate, where the president also was in with a plea to reject the measure and return it to a House-Senate conference committee for restoration of part of the cut.

The compromise carried $559,354,000 less than he asked.

The president said the reductions would "cripple" U.S. military and economic aid programs and in the end jeopardize the security of the United States.

House members gave only perfunctory attention to the president's plea, delivered at the 11th hour in letters to House and Senate leaders of both parties.

No real effort was made by House Republicans to carry out the president's urgent request, although Rep. Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind.), the GOP leader, read to the House the presiden's appeal and said it should be "very seriously considered."

NON-PARALYTIC POLIO STRIKES TWO SISTERS

Two Marin County sisters, aged 19 and 15, recently contracted non-paralytic polio, it was confirmed by the Marin County Health Department today.

One has been hospitalized and returned home. The other was held in hospital for determination of the extent of the illness but a health department spokesman said that the non-paralytic nature has been established.

The spokesman said both girls had received three Salk polio vaccine shots, and without them "we are convinced that the ailments would have been paralytic." The health department issued a new plea that Marin residents protect themselves against the disease by getting the full series of shots.

Soviets Order Another U.S. Aide To Leave

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union today ordered George Payne Winters Jr., a first secretary and economic attache at the U. S. Embassy, to get out of the country "as soon as possible" for alleged activities "incompatible with his diplomatic status."

Winters' expulsion came as no surprise to diplomatic circles here in view of the recent spat of ousters of diplomats and national by the United States and the Soviet Union.

The Soviets have been booting out a number of American students and tourists in recent days as alleged "spies," in a "vigilance" campaign that coincided with the recent trial of American U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers. And less than two weeks ago they ousted the U.S. air attache in Moscow and admonished his assistant for alleged "espionage" activities.

In the same general period, the United States expelled Valintin M. Ivanov, a first secretary at the Soviet Embassy in Washington, and Pyotr Y. Yezhov, a third secretary at the embassy. Yezhov was accused of having bought aerial photos of strategic targets in the United States.

Winters, 39, is a bachelor from Denver, Colo.

Commenting on the expulsion order, he said:

"I guess I just won the lottery."

He was due to leave Moscow for a new assignment next month.

Court Hearing On Clubhouse Row Delayed

A Superior Court hearing on the Novato Community Clubhouse dispute, originally scheduled for Monday, will not be held until late fall.

William O. Weissich, San Rafael attorney for Alfred Bowman of Novato, said this morning that he and the attorney representing the club had agreed to delay the hearing, possibly to early October, so that a full day of argument and testimony could be given the question.

Bowman was given a temporary restraining order against club officers Monday, so that they could make no formal moves regarding the clubhouse at 906 Machin Street at a meeting scheduled that night. The hearing which was to have been Monday, would have decided whether the order would continue or be lifted.

Some club members are against turnover of the clubhouse to the city or favor joint city-club use and operation.

Bowman is leader of a group who say that the original intent of club founders was to give the clubhouse to the city on city incorporation, and want to give it to the city free and clear.

Bowman asked the restraining order so that no action could be taken on the property pending the decision on a suit he also filed requesting a new trustee be appointed for the clubhouse, rather than the club, and requesting that the trustee

County Counsel Aide Applies For Judgeship

Assistant County Counsel E. Warren McGuire of Fairfax, a Republican, today asked Gov. Edmund G. Brown to consider him for appointment to the Marin County municipal judgeship—a vacancy expected to occur if Judge Richard M. Sims is elevated to superior court.

Judge Sims has been endorsed by the county Democratic Central Committee to succeed retiring Superior Judge Jordan L. Martinelli.

The committee also has endorsed attorney Joseph Wilson, a former San Rafael councilman, for the municipal judgeship. Attorney Julius Selinger, chairman of the county personnel commission, also has indicated he is interested in the post of municipal judge.

McGuire, 36, has been assistant county counsel since 1957. He was admitted to practice in 1951 and became associated with San Rafael attorney Guy A. Ciocca. In 1952, he was appointed a deputy district attorney by Richard M. Sims, who was then the county's district attorney, and served in both the criminal and civil practice of the office until 1957.

He attended the University of Santa Clara until he was called to active duty with the United States Army in 1943. He

Theft Suspect Captured In Hub Creek

San Anselmo officers went wading in the creek this morning—to recover $27 dropped by a burglar as he fled a pursuing policeman last night.

Officer Albert Howenstein on foot patrol at 9:35 p.m. saw a man jump out a rear window of the Junior Girls' Shop at 570 San Anselmo Avenue. The officer took after the man, fired a shot to stop him, then chased him into the creek near the store, where he caught him. Richard John Grundhauser, 25, of 9 Ross Street, San Rafael, was booked in Marin County jail on a burglary charge.

Asst. Chief Sam Serio said Grundhauser entered the store by prying open a window, took the money from a cash drawer, but dropped it in the creek. It was too dark to recover it last night.

VISITOR FROM UGANDA

Congo Got Freedom Too Soon, Youth Says

By DOROTHY SLATTERY

A Uganda youth who has arrived to complete his senior year in schooling at Redwood High School, today offered a criticism of the Congo, and set forth a few facts about his own country.

Charles Katungi, 18, a lean tall young man who exhibits keen interest in African politics, has arrived in Marin for a year's stay under the American Field Services foreign exchange student program.

Katungi said the Congolese have not been educated enough to run their own government.

Speaking the English he learned in the British-run schools of Uganda, Katungi said he also wants to "learn from America how to run a government."

His home is some 400 miles east of the Congo, a former Belgian colony. In Marin, he will live with Municipal Court Judge and Mrs. Richard M. Sims Jr. and their children in Tiburon.

Katungi already has been dubbed "Chuck" by the Sims' eldest son, Rick, 16, who also will be a senior at Redwood.

Commenting on the recently granted independence of Congo, Katungi pointed out that his own country, for 60 years a British protectorate, is now waiting to be granted independence.

Katungi's father was prime minister of Uganda's western province from 1948 to 1950. That was second in command to the king, the youth explained. He said one of the factors of independence is that the northern section of the country wants a republican form of government while the western section wants to continue under a monarchy.

"My country is ready for independence now," he said. "Our people are much better educated (than the Congolese), and we have no problem. Everybody thought what happened in the Congo was terrible," but many persons "put the blame on the Belgians for granting independence to a country that was not ready for it."

Katungi said Belgian refugees fleeing the Congo turmoil spilled into Uganda "with nothing but the clothes they were wearing, and not a single coin in their pockets."

Katungi wants to enter the public administration field after he finishes college. He has crammed a full program of social science courses into his Redwood study plan. He will

U.S. Helping Take Belgians Out Of Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (UPI)—U. S. Air Force planes today joined an airlift to ferry Belgian soldiers home from the Congo and help the United Nations keep its vow to get them all out of the country.

As 12 U. S. Air Force transports took off from the Kamina military base with 795 Belgian troops, Premier Patrice Lumumba renewed his demands that the U.N. forces leave the country as soon as the last Belgian soldiers have gone.

Lumumba called for a "gradual" withdrawal of the U.N. forces and declared: "We do not want another occupation of the Congo by the United Nations."

U.S. Breaks Off With Dominican

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States broke relations today with the Dominican Republic.

An announcement by the State Department said the United States diplomatic mission at Ciudad Trujillo is being withdrawn.

The Dominican government was requested to recall its mission here.

"This action," the announcement said, "is is consonance with the decisions taken at the sixth meeting of consultation of American foreign ministers in San Jose, Costa Rica."

U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other Western Hemisphere foreign ministers voted political and economic sanctions against the Caribbean nation last Saturday.

AFL-CIO Exec Council Endorses Demo Ticket

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council today endorsed the Democratic ticket and recommended that the 14-million member federation support it.

The council proposed that the federation's general board, meeting this afternoon, ratify the endorsement. This was regarded as a certainty.

Only 18 members of the 29, man executive council were present for the endorsement action.

One dissenting vote was cast by A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.

The Negro union chief had said earlier that there was "not enough difference" between Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy and Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon to justify choosing between them.

Most of the council absentees were busy with duties in other cities, some in Europe.

CONTROL IS NEAR

Millions To Be Spent In Forest Fire Salvage

TRUCKEE (UPI)—Fire-fighters today neared the end of a seven-day battle to control forest fires in the High Sierra. Forestry officials planned a multi-million-dollar salvage operation on the blackened mountains.

The Donner Ridge blaze, which charred 35,000 acres north of Lake Tahoe, was 100 per cent contained and full control was expected by tomorrow. The 37,000-acre fire at Foresthill still was open on an eight-mile front, but helicopter-borne teams hoped to contain it within 24 hours.

The Sierra blazes, which were fought by 6,000 men, claimed their first victim yesterday. William K. Powers, 31, Springville, died of carbon monoxide poisoning while manning a radio in a truck at Donner Ridge.

RUNAWAY TRUCK HARD TO STOP

This loaded fuel truck took a 200-foot runaway trip down a steep hill in St. Louis yesterday, just missed a house, ran across a yard, overturned a parked car, and came to rest atop a car. Truck driver Henry F. Fehr fell down three times in a fruitless chase to stop the truck. Apparently the vehicle's brakes failed. (AP Wirephoto)

Congress Takes Up Medical, Money Bills, Presses For Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three appropriation bills and a compromise medical care measure were lined up for probable final approval today as Congress pressed toward adjournment, expected in the middle of next week.

Clearance of the bills for President Eisenhower's action would leave only one major measure—the minimum wage bill—before adjournment.

While some members, anxious to hit the campaign trail, still were hoping for adjournment perhaps Saturday, they weren't optimistic.

Next Tuesday or Wednesday was the target date set by congressional leaders.

Top priority on today's House schedule was assigned to the health bill, a compromise which limits medical care provisions to needy older persons and makes minor changes in Social Security benefits.

The three appropriations bills, two of them compromises and one an original measure, finance the foreign aid program, the government's vast public works programs, and some miscellaneous agencies.

The foreign aid measure would appropriate $3,722,350,000. It includes a ban against aid to countries that help Fidel Castro's Cuba or the Dominican Republic, unless the President finds that such a ban would damage this country's interests. The money total is $559,354,000 less than the President wanted.

The foreign aid bill, along with the compromise public works measure, was expected to encounter little trouble in either branch.

The new money bill, appropriating less than 100 million dollars for assorted agencies, was so non-controversial that the House gave unanimous consent for its expedited consideration.

They are the last appropriation bills of the present session.

The minimum wage bill was in more difficulty. Senate and House conferees scheduled meetings today and again Monday in an effort to reach a common ground on separate measures passed by the two branches.

Indications were they would eventually come up with a measure closer to the House bill than to the Senate plan, which had the backing of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

The House bill would raise minimum wages for covered workers from $1 to $1.15 an hour and extend coverage to about a million more workers. The Senate voted a $1.25 ceiling with coverage for an added four million employes.

Hope for action this year on school aid and general housing legislation was abandoned by Democratic leaders, who intend to make a campaign issue out of refusal of Republicans on the Democratic - dominated House Rules Committee to let the bills come to a final vote.

The four committee Republicans aided by two Democrats, have effectively bottled up both measures over the opposition of six other Democrats.

Nixon Starts Bid In South; Kennedy Asks Arms Buildup

Senator Asserts U.S. Leadership Slipping Away

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy today urged a stronger defense program "regardless of what it will cost."

The Massachusetts senator told fellow members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars: "The harsh facts of the matter are that our security and leadership are both slipping away from us—that the balance of world power is slowly shifting to the Soviet-Red Chinese block—and that our own shores are for the first time since 1812 imperiled by chinks in our defensive armor."

BEFORE VFW

Kennedy's forum was the VFW national convention, where Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate appeared two days ago. Nixon told the VFW—he is a member too—that the United States stands first in the world militarily, economically, scientifically and educationally and that "we have the will and determination to maintain that position."

In his own prepared address, Kennedy challenged Nixon's words as "a series of rosy reassurances" and as a "siren call of false contentment."

ALSO A MEMBER

Kennedy said he was proud to be a member of the VFW when he arrived here in Detroit and learned that the convention had adopted a resolution calling for increased defensive strength.

He said the resolution showed courage, conviction and "loyalty to all we hold dear."

He said he would like to give rosy reassurances, too, and to be able to say catagorically and proudly that this country is first in the world militarily, economically, scientifically and educationally, and will be in the future.

APPEAL TO DUTY

"I cannot in all honesty make those claims," he said. "I cannot go to the country with appeals to the voters' complacency. My appeal is to their duty—and it is refreshing to know by your resolution that you who responded to that appeal in years past will not now heed the siren call of false contentment."

Kennedy said the next president, whoever he may be, should send to Congress next January specific requests to accelerate missile programs, expand and modernize conventional armed forces, protect our retaliatory capacity, and streamline the defense establishment.

Vice President Says People In Dixie Due Choice

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon launched a second campaign invasion of the South today, with an expressed view that "we have a chance in some Southern states."

On the eve of a one-day sweep to talk in Birmingham, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga., Nixon said, "At least we are going to give the people down there a choice, something they sometimes have not had in previous times."

This was one of the campaign observations the Republican presidential candidate made during a sometimes serious, usually breezy appearance last night on Jack Paar's show on NBC-TV.

ON DECISIONS

Nixon took in stride a question based on President Eisenhower's remark that while Nixon is a principal adviser "no one can make a decision except me." Some took this as a blow at Nixon's major contention that his executive participation in the top levels of the Eisenhower administration entitles him to promotion to the presidency.

Nixon said that "the President stated the case exactly and correctly" for his administration—and, properly, any administration.

But Nixon added he has had the "very great privilege" of being asked for his opinion and "participating in the discussions which lead to a decision by the President." His experience, he said, included sitting "in the councils of the administration, in the Cabinet and the Security Council."

DIFFERENCES

When he was asked about differences between himself and his Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy, Nixon listed first "the difference in our experience."

Then he took a swat at the Democratic platform for what he termed its tendency "to promise everything to everybody, and having in effect used the people's money to pay the bill."

At the same time, he said his relations with Kennedy "on a personal basis are friendly" and expressed the hope personal animosity would not develop in the campaign.

Tam Employees To Hear Speaker

Dr. Fred T. Wilhelms, San Francisco State College professor, will be a featured speaker at a general meeting of all Tamalpais Union High School District employees Tuesday.

The meeting will be held in Ruby Scott Auditorium at Tamalpais High from 9:30 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. Theme of the session is "Next Step in the Pursuit of Excellence." Supt. Chester G. Carlisle, speaking on the theme, will give a "state of the district" address prior to Wilhelms' speech.

The general session will be followed by an orientation meeting and luncheon for all new teachers in the district.

6-YEAR LABOR TIFF

Plumbing Company Told To Bargain

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Labor Relations Board today directed the Kohler Co. of Sheboygan, Wis., to bargain collectively with Local 833 of the United Auto Workers Union.

The union and the company have been deadlocked in one of the nation's bitterest industrial disputes since 1954.

The board held that the plumbingware manufacturer failed to bargain in good faith with the UAW by a series of unfair labor practices. These practices began, the board said, after a 54-day shutdown of the plant following a strike which began April 5, 1954.

Four of the five board members held that what began as an economic strike was converted by Kohler into an unfair labor practice strike when the company gave an "unlawful wage increase" to non-strikers June 1, 1954.

The fifth member, Joseph A. Jenkins, held the strike was an unfair labor practice from its start. He cited what he called a long standing "fixed intent" by Kohler "to precipitate a situation which would enable it to rid itself of the union." Jenkins said Kohler's unfair labor practices caused the strike.

All five members ordered Kohler to reinstate rank-and-file strikers who had not been permanently replaced before June 1, 1954. Eligible strikers must be re-hired as soon as their applications are made, the board ruled.

The company was ordered to fire any workers hired on or after the June 1 date if this should be necessary to restore the strikers to their old jobs "or substantially equivalent positions with full seniority and other privileges."

Anti-Catholic Literature Going Around

NEW YORK (UPI)—An alarming amount of anti-Catholic hate literature is being circulated in the presidential campaign, the Fair Campaign Practices Committee reported yesterday.

Bruce L. Felknor, the committee's executive director, said he feared the current campaign might see more anti-Catholic writings than the 1928 presidential contest, in which Alfred E. Smith lost to Herbert Hoover.

The bi-partisan, interdenominational committee works to keep all types of prejudice out of political contests.

The committee is concentrating mainly on the Catholic issue this year because of the candidacy of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Felknor has an increasing file of anti-Catholic literature, some of which he feels represents the sincere views of persons opposed to a Catholic president. He said others obviously are the work of smear and hate artists.

Commute Drop Worries Gate Span Directors

What happened to the commuters who usually cross the Golden Gate Bridge during July?

That's what the bridge directors want their general manager to find out.

Although July was a record month for the span, 1,883,970 vehicles crossing it, the number of commuters decreased. While cash tolls increased by 11.9 per cent, the commute traffic decreased 3.8 per cent, 14,593 fewer cars than in July 1959.

"What happened to the commuters?" asked finance chairman William Hadeler.

"Well, a year ago, we put the new 52-trip commute book on sale; maybe that had something to do with it," suggested traffic engineer Arthur C. Jenkins.

The directors instructed general manager James Adam to review the traffic figures and to also report on the present trend of commuter use of the bridge.

Revenue for the month of July totaled $480,906, an increase of 6 per cent over July last year. However truck traffic also showed a decrease of 3,101 vehicles, or 3.4 per cent.

The bridge directors received bids from three communications firms for installation of complete two-way radio system for the bridges, cars and equipment. At present the bridge is leasing such equipment from the telephone company. Low bid of Marco Engineering and Sales Inc., San Francisco, was $12,076.40. The bids ranged to as high as $16,015.07. The bids were referred to the building and operating committee for study.

The directors agreed that a low bid of $4,482 for concrete repairs at the base of the San Francisco anchor pylon should be accepted if the general manager and attorney found it to be in conformance with specifications. The bid submitted by Johnson Western Gunite Co. of Oakland was low of four submitted. The high was $9,880.

Two Injured As Buses Hit

The owner of the Richmond-San Rafael Bus Line and one of his passengers were injured in an accident near the San Rafael bus depot on Third Street yesterday.

Cecil John Allen, 63, of 3 Bennett Avenue, San Anselmo, was hurled from the driver's seat when a Greyhound bus backed into his small foreign bus.

He was treated for contusions of the elbow, skull and forehead and a possible sprained back at San Rafael General Hospital.

A passenger, Michael M. Matulich, 48, of Oakland, suffered abrasions of the knee, but declined treatment.

Driver of the Greyhound bus, John Patrick O'Sullivan, 34, of 1345 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, was not cited.

Sergeant Guilty Of Manslaughter In Highway Death

S/Sgt. Paul L. McGee, 28, of Hamilton Air Force Base was found guilty of manslaughter yesterday in Marin County Superior Court for the highway death of a 5-year-old girl near Novato last January.

A jury of eight women and four men found McGee guilty of felony manslaughter and felony drunk driving after four hours of deliberation.

McGee, of the 43rd Communications Squadron, was accused of causing an accident in which Katherine Rich was burned to death in her father's car when it plowed into a ditch off Highway 101.

Judge Jordan L. Martinelli set Sept. 19 for sentencing.

Chamber Unit Recommends Highway Plan

A recommendation for the adoption of the new Highway 101 widening program as presented by the Division of Highways was unanimously agreed upon by the streets and highways committee of the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce at its monthly meeting yesterday at the King Cotton restaurant.

The group, augmented by businessmen and property owners in the area affected, will make this recommendation to its board of directors: "That the City of San Rafael be urged to adopt Highway 101 widening plans known as C4 and A1) in order that construction may begin at the earliest possible date and that the City should respond to the public interest and order an immediate study of all streets in San Rafael, especially those affected by the proposed plan."

The committee put special emphasis on the study aspect of the recommendation because it feels the time has arrived for San Rafael to bond itself for a special new roads and improvement program. It was noted that the newly acquired sections of San Rafael to the north of the older part of the city has only Highway 101 connecting these parts; and that the buildup of the McNear Peninsula will require much more than the present North and South San Pedro Roads to care for population increases in this area.

Al Re, chairman of the chamber committee, presided.

was sent to Virginia Polytechnic Institute as part of the Army college training program and later was sent overseas as an infantryman.

After discharge he attended the University of San Francisco and was graduated from its law school in 1950.

McGuire is a registered Republican. "I sincerely believe, however," he wrote the governor, "that in judicial appointments consideration has been given by you in the past to all qualified attorneys by reason of their education, training, experience, integrity and acceptability by their community and profession as well as by reason of their political affiliations."

He is married, has three children, has lived in Fairfax for seven years and before that in San Rafael about two years.

McGuire is a member of the Marin County, State and American Bar Assns., American Legion, Knights of Columbus, Native Sons of the Golden West, and Elks Lodge 1107 of San Rafael.

He is legal counsel and board member of the Symphony Guild of Marin and a member of the board of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

Mason Manor Apartments To Be Shown

"Walk to work" location combined with out-in-the-country amenities are among the luxurious aspects claimed for the new Mason Manor apartments on view tomorrow and Sunday at First, Second and Hayes Streets in San Rafael.

They represent something new in the life of the owner as well, a venture in semi-retirement for A. W. (Bill) Mason who has been widely known as a grocery operator in Marin County for the past 30 years.

Mason now lives in San Rafael but he started his grocery business in Sausalito, where he became a city councilman. He owns San Rafael's Tamalpais Market at D and Second Streets but with his sons, Les and Lloyd, now in charge, he has just built Mason Manor.

Life there will center about an outdoor patio pool. Mason Manor will contain 14 apartment units, 13 of which will be in a large L-shaped building.

The 14th will be an individual house, in effect, fronting on the heated pool.

Large private decks will overlook it. All the apartments will be soundproofed. They will have individual heating units, tiled baths and kitchens, all manner of electrical appliances and wall-to-wall carpeting.

A master antenna will be tapped into from each apartment to give the best in television viewing.

Ronald Antonioli, general contractor, is builder. Hall, Hoffman and Shaw were architects.

Mayor Of S.F. Gets Bomb Threat

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A pop bottle containing a bomb threat was hurled through a window of Mayor George Christopher's home during the night.

The mayor discovered it this morning. The note said a time bomb was placed under the house set to go off tomorrow.

study state and national history, public speaking and English.

Next summer he will return to his father's farm, but the following year he would like to return to the United States for college with a major in political science.

Katungi said the secondary schools in Uganda are operated by the British, the primary schools by Africans. Many of the young people want to go to college but there "is only one university, and that is in East Africa," he said.

He said his country is impressed by American aid, but added farmers still use a hoe to plow the land. Tractors are used on big plantations. His father's farm is stocked with 50 cows, used both for milk and meat, and with sheep and goats. They also raise bananas and cotton.

What about sports? Katungi looks forward to doing some skiing this winter. He was captain of his school's soccer team, but thinks American football "looks rough."

He is impressed with America's machines and cars. "Tremendous," he grinned, "I'm going to learn to drive."

Woodacre Club Plans Mexican Dinner

A "Mexican holiday" atmosphere will greet members and friends who attend the dinner-dance at the Woodacre Improvement Club tomorrow. A complete dinner, which will feature enchiladas and other Mexican-style foods, will be served from 8 until 9 p.m., followed by dancing to the music of Jack Barnes orchestra from 9 until 1 a.m.

Tickets may be obtained from club members and will also be available at the door.

Linden A. Cook Succumbs at 52

Linden A. Cook of Daly City, superintendent of the Navy renovation plant at San Quentin Prison since 1952, died last night at a San Francisco hospital where he had been a patient since Tuesday. He was 52.

A native of West Virginia, Cook was retired as a lieutenant commander in the Navy. He was a civilian employee of the Naval Supply Center, Alameda, assigned to the San Quentin plant which does cleaning under a contract with the Navy.

He is survived by his wife and children by a prior marriage.

A WEEK OF GOOD READING

PROFILE OF THE WEEK—Two years ago at the age of 38 Dr. Theodore Alexander Gill became president of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, making him at the time the youngest Presbyterian seminary president in the country. But despite his youth, Dr. Gill had already served his church and humanity in a number of important capacities. And he had achieved a well-deserved reputation as a man with fresh ideas and the courage to voice them. You will read about this son of Minnesota's Mesabi range iron mining country in tomorrow's Marin Magazine in an article written by Independent-Journal staff writer Randall Gould.

ONE OF A SERIES — Each week an Independent-Journal staff writer explores the character, achievements and human side of one of Marin's outstanding personalities — some of whom are all too little known by their neighbors.

Marin Visitor Accused Of Raping Stinson Girl

A red-haired insurance adjuster was arrested on a charge of kidnaping and raping a 15-year-old Stinson Beach girl in the bushes near her home last night.

Kicking and screaming, the girl was dragged into a thicket off Highway 1 about a quarter-mile north of the Surf Club bar.

Twenty minutes later Albert B. Cote Jr. was arrested at gunpoint by two sheriff's deputies on Highway 1 just north of the Panoramic Highway intersection.

Cote, 27-year-old visitor from Manhattan Beach, Los Angeles County, refused to talk about the charges.

His face was covered with scratches and bruises, deputies said.

The terrified girl — the daughter of a Bay Area doctor —identified Cote twice in lineups at the county jail, according to investigators.

Shaken, she told deputies she was walking along the highway about 6:30 p.m. when a man pulled up and offered her a ride. She refused.

She said he returned a few minutes later, dragged her into the bushes and raped her.

Afterward the couple walked to a nearby bar, where the girl ran into the back room and said she had been raped. Her attacker fled in his car.

Deputies said Cote had been fishing and drinking earlier in the day at Bolinas.

Liner Waitress Jailed After Car Hits Pole

An ocean liner waitress was jailed early today on suspicion of drunken driving and hit-and-run driving after her convertible struck a utility pole in Novato.

Miss Patricia Simpson McDonnell, 34, of 1299 Leafwood Drive, Novato, was held in county jail today in lieu of $578 bail.

It took two sheriff's patrol cars to catch her. Sgt. Joseph E. Mooney raced after the the speeding convertible from Black Point northward about 3 a.m. The car turned off onto South Novato Boulevard. Near the firehouse at Stone Drive, Mooney ran into a cloud of dust and his patrol car got tangled among wires. But he radioed the description of the convertible.

Deputy Sheriff Robert diGrazia spotted the car in a driveway. He quoted Miss McDonnell as saying, "What's the matter? All I did was knock down a pole."

Two Artists Win State Fair Awards

Two Marin County artists have won awards in the California State Fair and Exposition arts competition.

David Simpson of Sausalito received a $50 award for his oil painting "Tropic of Capricorn."

Herbert Buel of Mill Valley received an award for his watercolor "Palace of Fine Arts."

Paintings will be on display during the run of the fair, which starts Wednesday and ends Sept. 11.

Among the judges for the sculpture division of the fair was Richard O'Hanlon of Mill Valley.

A Point Reyes Station woman, Mrs. Edward W. Perry, was awarded first place in the handcraft and needlework division, gathered rag rug class.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Totem Pole

Camp Fire Girls rather than Girl Scouts are planning to present a hand carved redwood totem pole to the new civic center, Mrs. Robert Eschen, Camp Fire Girls golden jubilee chairman, said today.

The offer of a pole was accepted last Tuesday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors and it is expected that the pole will be placed in some temporary location.

Work of carving will start at once, Mrs. Eschen said. Fifty years of Camp Fire work will be celebrated this fall and winter and as the adult part of the observance will be next January, and the totem pole carving is to be performed by an adult council member. It is hoped that the work can be finished before that time.

Hub Youth Hurt As Bike Hits Truck

Richard Del Tredici, 19, of 329 Laurel Avenue, San Anselmo, was reported in good condition at Marin General Hospital today after suffering a broken nose and cuts when his bicycle and a truck collided yesterday in Mill Valley.

Police Officer John Imperiale said Del Tredici, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Del Tredici, was riding north on East Blithedale Avenue Extension near Roques Moraes Drives at about noon yesterday.

A truck, driven by Richard F. Gregory, 23, of San San Mateo was going north also. In passing, the right rear tire of the truck hit the bike, Imperiale said, hurling the boy to the pavement.

Del Tredici, a student at the University of California at Berkeley, was riding with David Harde of 113 Jewel Street, San Rafael, on the way to Tiburon. Harde, a San Rafael High School senior, was not hit.

Gregory told police he was passing the boys on bicycles when he felt a bump as a handle bar hit the side of the truck.

Del Tredici was treated for a broken nose and cuts on face and forehead.

Save Coast Committee To Tell Senator Views

The Save the Marin Coast Committee will meet with State Sen. John F. McCarthy at 1:30 p.m. Monday "to express its views on saving the Marin coastline," according to Mrs. Jay Hamburg, committee spokesman.

The meeting will be at the McCarthy Loch Lomond Marina at 630 San Pedro Road, San Rafael.

Most members of the committee took part in the Aug. 4 hearing when the California Division of Highways presented proposed re-routing of Shoreline Highway.

Those who will meet Monday include Casper W. Weinberger of San Francisco, attorney for George Wheelwright, Green Gulch rancher; Peter Whitney of Inverness; Leslie Smith, Muir Beach engineer representing Muir Beach; Kent O. Seymour and Richard E. College Trustees Hire Women's Counselor

College of Marin trustees last night named Margaret D. Greene as counselor of women students at an annual salary of $9,000.

Mrs. Greene, 41, for the past two years eighth grade teacher at the Adeline E. Kent School, is a graduate of Tamalpais High School. She received her bachelor of arts degree at Mills College, her master's degree at Columbia University and her doctorate at University of California.

The mother of two boys, 10 and 14, Mrs. Greene lives at 61 Morningsun Drive, Mill Valley. She has been active with the Campfire Girls, the Red Cross and the Homestead Parent-Teacher Assn.

She will be a full-time counselor, college director Stephen Epler said, and will have no teaching duties. She will work under direction of Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students.

The board also approved employment of a full time library assistant, and extended the daytime closing hour of the library from 4 to 5 p.m. during the coming school year.

A special meeting was set for 4:30 p.m., Sept. 2, at which time a decision was expected to be reached on the operation of the school cafeteria. The cafeteria, operated last year by a partially blind person through the State Vocational Rehabilitation Service, will probably be operated through vending machines this year, the trustees said.

Several vending companies have offered proposals for operation of the facilities and additional bids are expected before the Sept. 2 meeting.

In other action, the board:

1. Approved employment of Claire K. Mitchell as secretary to the college director at $400 a month, and Frances Patton as secretary to the dean of students at $350 a month.
2. Approved paying the expenses of the superintendent, director and dean of instruction to attend a meeting of the California Junior College Assn. at Yosemite, Oct. 23-27.
3. Authorized Paul Clymer, dean of instruction, to attend a meeting of the accreditation board of the Western College Assn. at Susanville, Oct. 18 at no expense to the college.
4. Voted to pay the expenses of Dr. Epler while attending a California Junior College Assn. Conference in Bakersfield, Oct. 7-8.
5. Authorized partial remodeling of the student body offices in Room 24 of Harlan Hall.
6. Announced no credits would be given for adult evening classes until the second semester of school, pending further investigation of the credit system by the administration.

Upsala is a cathedral and university city in Sweden, 50 miles north of Stockholm. Its population is about 30,000.

FROM WELLS' CLASSIC

'Time Machine' Takes Journey Via Movie To 802,701 A.D.

JOURNEY IN TIME—Yvette Mimieux and Rod Taylor listen to the last recorded voice of a past age on a "talking ring" in "The Time Machine," a film about the year 802,701 A.D, based on H. G. Wells' science-adventure story. The film starts Sunday at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael.

By LESLIE DARD

Details of the movies on view in Marin this weekend:

RAFAEL THEATER

As science-fiction films go, "The Time Machine" (color) is Grade A. The reasons for this are simple: The hokum is entrancing and the special effects (by producer-director George Pal) are expert.

Based on a story by H. G. Wells, this film opens Sunday on the San Rafael screen.

It tells of an inventor (Rod Taylor) who devises a time machine, looks in on a couple of world wars, observes the atomic holocaust of 1966 and then chucks it all for the year 802,701.

The world, he finds, is populated by spiritless young people called the Eloi. The most fetching of these is portrayed by Yvette Mimieux, a lovely French import. Regrettably, Yvette and her fellows are merely being raised as beef by the Morlocks, a bunch of green, cave-dwelling mutants.

But our scientist's brains are sharp and he heads back for dinner in 1890, and also to acquire three books which he thinks can set the Eloi back on the right path.

Estimate: A good ride.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"Thirteen Ghosts" (color) is a lively entry in the summer film market which is aimed at the youngsters.

Produced William Castle includes a gimmick: A piece of colored cellophane which is a "ghost viewer." Each customer gets some, enabling him to see the "apparitions."

The story itself concerns a family headed by Donald Woods and Rosemary DeCamp. They inherit a house and take it, ghosts and all.

There's a buried treasure to complicate matters, an ouija board which talks alone, weird moans, etc., all designed to keep the youngsters screaming. It opens Sunday on the Hub City screen.

LARK THEATER

The funniest British import in many a month is a new satire titled "Expresso Bongo." Its star is Laurence Harvey, the male lead of "Room at the Top," and it is now showing in Larkspur.

This comedy concerns a small-time agent (Harvey) and his rock and roll prodigy, Bon go Herbert (Cliff Richards). How Harvey manipulates the field in his roller coaster ride to the top makes for a film which is savage, frequently irreverent and always lively.

Estimate: Don't miss this one.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Home From the Hill" (color, CinemaScope) is a rugged mixture of illicit passion and family decline in Texas.

Story concerns the Hunnicutt family:

Robert Mitchum, shameless philanderer; Eleanor Parker whose coldness drives him into the arms of other women; George Hamilton, their sissified son, whom the father teaches to chase two-footed game (specifically Luana Patten); George Peppard, the mysterious chief hand on their ranch.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" was one of five nominees for an Oscar as the best film of two years ago. It's in color, and it stars Liz Taylor and Paul Newman, were in the running for best acting awards.

Based on Tennessee Williams' prize winning play, the story is full of lusty frankness.

On Sunday, this theater is due to start a special four-day showing of Mike Todd's "Around the World in 80 Days."

SEQUOIA THEATER

"The Apartment" — which has been held over on the Mill Valley screen — is the funniest Hollywood film since "Some Like It Hot."

Starring Jack Lemmon and Shirley MacLaine, it relates the plight of a bachelor who lends his apartment key to office mates for their amatory adventures.

Estimate: Don't miss this.

MOTOR MOVIES

"Some Like It Hot," starring Marilyn Monroe, Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis, is being revived for a few more day.

The stars, plus Pat O'Brien, Joe E. Brown and George Raft turn back the clock to the late 1920s when people went to speakeasies and rival gangs gunned each other down.

Curtis and Lemmon play a pair of musicians who flee mobsters by disguising themselves as girls. Marilyn is a flighty singer.

NOVATO THEATER

"The Bramble Bush," opening Sunday, is a drama in the "Peyton Place" tradition. It takes apart a New England community and, in the process, reveals hidden loves and lusts.

And for good measure, there is the matter of mercy killing.

The participants include Tom Drake, Richard Burton, Barbara Rush, Angie Dickinson and Jack Carson.

MARIN THEATER

"Carry On, Nurse" is a new British comedy which establishes, beyond a doubt, that the male animal cuts a pretty sad figure when bereft of his pants. It opens Sunday on the Sausalito screen.

The men's ward of a hospital serves as the setting for this romp. There is no story as such. Rather, the audience follows the day and night activities of the patients.

The preview crowd got quite a few laughs out of this one.

Ballet Sunday To End Series Of Concerts

America's oldest performing ballet company, the San Francisco ballet, will close the current concert season of the Marin Music Chest at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at Forest Meadows in San Rafael.

The company, under the direction of Lew Christensen, will perform "Danza Brilliante," Act II of "Swan Lake," "Divertissement d'Auber" and the comic ballet "Con Amore."

Featured dancers are Sally Bailey of Belvedere, Jocelyn Volmmar, Richard Drew and Virginia Johnson.

The company was founded as the San Francisco Opera Ballet to keep the San Francisco Opera supplied with dancers. The San Francisco Ballet School was founded at the same time.

Gates of Forest Meadows open at 6:30 p.m. and there are no reserved seats. Pedestrians may enter through the auto gate on Belle Avenue, the Grand Avenue entrance or the gate behind the stage on Watt Avenue.

Spinnaker Restaurant Will Open Wednesday

Eight months of construction work on Marin County's newest waterside restaurant have virtually ended, and the Spinnaker in Sausalito will open its doors to the public next Wednesday.

The glass enclosed eating spot has a club-like atmospher, and is the result of combined efforts of J. Eugene McAteer, William E. McDonnell and John Lynam of San Francisco who own it, architects Hertzka and Knowles of San Francisco and Walter Zell supervising architect, who designed it, and the Barrett Construction Co. who built it.

McAteer owns Tarantino's restaurant on Fisherman's Wharf, and John Lynam is its executive chef.

The Spinnaker is located on the old Sausalito sandspit off Bay St. about 1,000 feet from the Bridgeway

The restaurant has a parking area for 80 cars, adjoining another newly leveled parking spot with room for about 150 more.

It boasts a seating capacity of 175 persons with every table affording a view of the bay, Belvedere, Angel Island and the San Francisco skyline. A cocktail lounge adjoins the dining room which extends over the water on piers. A catwalk surrounds practically the entire perimeter.

Other features include an extra-large kitchen with modern stainless steel equipment, two walk-in freezers, and a large wine and liquor storage room.

McDonnell who has been coordinating the final stages of work in preparation for the opening stated that the Spinnaker will be operated seven days aweek.

"We are serving plain American food," he said, "but there is a good variety."

Opening hours will be from 11:30 a.m. through lunch and dinner until about 1 a.m. Saturdays and Sundays it will open at 10 a.m. for brunch.

Jack Chapman, 138 Circle Road, San Rafael, has been appointed maitre d'hotel and Charles Switzer of San Francisco will be captain. George Burdock is bar manager.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Former Maitre d' Hotel In Chicago Heads Rickey's Rancho Rafael

New manager at Rickey's Rancho Rafael is Andy Yonan, former maitre d'hotel at the Ambassador East Hotel in Chicago and it fabulous Pump Room. Andy was 22 years at the Ambassador. He started as a bus boy and ended in the top spot.

Making occasional trips to California to visit his folks he met John Rickey in Sacramento, who promptly signed him up for the Hilton Inn at the San Francisco Airport. He was transferred to the Rancho Rafael about six weeks ago.

Jean Denning, former organist at Sabella's, will start playing at the combination organ and piano bar to be installed in the Stein Room Sept. 1. She will play six nights a week.

WORD IS that Bob and Jean Ghiringhelli of Lord Fairfax Catering will move their business from Fairfax next spring to the same San Rafael site as Domenic's (Wm. H. McDevitt's proposed luxury restaurant off Francisco Boulevard) where they'll operate the restaurant, banquet room and outdoor patio as well.

THE COLONEL has several season tickets for the 49er games. Good seats, I'm told, and they'll include cocktails and bus transportation to San Francisco, as before.

The colonel is Max Horowitz. His honorary title has led to his 101 Highway spot being called the Colonel's Ranch Wagon. Don't let it fool you—it's the same old Ranch Wagon.

Incidentally, Allen Storm's "On the Town" KGO radio program is being broadcast here again tonight from 11:30 p. m. to 12:30 a. m. Looks like it's to be a regular thing about every two weeks or so.

AFTER MORE than a year it was my privilege to poke my nose inside the kitchen of the Fleur d'Lys the other evening. Considering that it was one of those nights when every table was filled and a waiting list was champing to be seated, I picked a busy time to make the tour.

However, what most amazed me was the size. First time I'd ever seen a place where the inside was larger than the outside—or was it my glasses? (The ones I was wearing, I mean.) I was enchanted by the staff and enchanted with the equipment and cleanliness. I felt like a nosey Hines making an inspection and I promised not to bother them again—I'm satisfied.

STILL frequent visitors at Rubini's are its former pianist Mary Lee Wizer and her husband, Donald M. Chapman (okay, so it's Mary Lee Chapman now.) They were married several months ago in Reno. Don is with the Bank of America in San Francisco, and Mary Lee is there, too, playing at the Curtain Call for her fifth time. They live in Santa Venetia.

She's also going in for vocal instruction, having had several years with the San Francisco Opera Company.

Rubini's has quite a seafood menu. They've gone for it in about 10 different dishes.

AL BOYAJIAN, prorprietor of Alpine Market in Fairfax, has a double job on his hands. He's been put in charge of Sears' Restaurant at Powell and Sutter in San Francisco by his in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sanner, who want to retire. He has a problem being at both places at once and while he doesn't want to, he thinks he'll have to—sell the market.

HAL MATTEUCCI, owner of the Knot Inn, San Anselmo, is talking about adding food to his little cocktail hangout—and maybe a piano player . . . Herb Saman, musical fixture at the Blue Rock Inn, admits he's an old chromo but asks: Where else can you see and hear one playing the piano? . . . We're glad to learn that Antoinette Ghiringhelli of Deer Park Villa is out of Ross Hospital and well on the way to recovery.

Corte Madera Sets Budget, Tax Rate

Corte Madera Town Council formally adopted its budget and set a $1.08 tax rate last night in a short meeting that broke all modern records.

"This is the shortest meeting I've ever seen," Town Clerk Naydeen Penny declared happily. Mayor Edward W. Colthurst lowered the closing gavel at 8:25 p.m. after zipping through the agenda in 55 minutes.

The tax rate of $1.08 is 17 cents lower than last year's rate of $1.25, although the budget for the coming year is $329,045, almost identical with last year's. The lower tax rate is due to the big jump in the town's total assessed valuation, which rose from $8,885,730 last year to $10,836,520.

Mayor Colthurst and Councilmen Raymond L. DeYoung and Albert E. Kogler made the quorum for last night's meeting. The other two councilmen were absent.

In other action at the meeting:

1. All bids on fill for the town park were rejected because the cost was too high. The council called for new bids, this time on uncompacted fill, and set 3:30 p.m. Sept. 6 to open the bids. The town wants about 31,000 cubic yards of earth to fill a portion of the 22-acre town park. The fill would be used on portions of the park that front on Tamalpais Avenue and Pixley Avenue so that street frontages can be beautified first.

2. Council awarded the Oakdale Avenue (between Chapman Drive and Eastman Avenue) improvement job to Ceccotti & Son of Marin Inc. for the original bid of $21,619. Bids on this job had caused considerable confusion during the previous two meetings. First, the Ceccotti bid came in a Lee Mac Paving Co. envelope. Then Ceccotti asserted the plans were not clear on the contractor's responsibility in locating 16 lateral lines along the road and declared that this would cost an additional $1,000. City fathers, on Aug. 15, then awarded the contract to E. A. Forde Co., which bid $22,800.

But last night, Town Atty. John Ehlen ruled that later discussions on the 16 laterals had nothing to do with the contract. The councilmen then gave the contract back to Ceccotti, but without the added $1,000 cost.

3. Set 3 p.m. Sept. 19 to open bids on improvement of Pixley Avenue, off Tamalpais Drive, adjacent to the town park.

Orientation Day Planned For New Redwood Students

All students new to Redwood High School, including entering freshmen, report to the Larkspur campus at 9 a.m. on Sept. 6, one day prior to the beginning of regular classes, Principal Donald Kreps announced today.

"The special orientation day," Kreps said, "is to give new students an opportunity to learn their way around the campus, to meet teachers, and to learn about some of the activities planned for the year."

Students are asked to report to the gymnasium to get a copy of their program. After a special program in the gym, 20-minute classes will be held in the regular rooms. School will be dismissed at noon.

Special Greyhound bus service will be in operation on Sept. 6.

On the following day, regular students will also report to the gymnasium at 9 a.m. to pick up program cards. School will be in session all day; buses will be on regular schedule; and the canteen will be open, Kreps said.

Course Planned In Management

Russell T. Sharpe, president of Golden Gate College in San Francisco and resident of 59 Golden Hind Boulevard in Terra Linda, announced that the college will hold a 32-week management development program for business executives of the Bay Area.

The program, which will include among its participants Walter J. Tait, training director for Standard Oil Co., who resides at 71 Lochinvar Road in Loch Lomond, is scheduled to begin Sept. 27.

Classes will be held once a week (day to be announced) from 4 to 9 p.m., with dinner included.

The course will be divided into two periods; one devoted to development of personal skills in communication, and the other to modern management techniques.

Color Photos Of Russia To Be Shown

Color photos of Russia's major cities, including Moscow and Leningrad, will highlight the Sausalito Rotary Club meeting Thursday noon at the Alta Mira Hotel.

James T. Doty, president and general manager of Bear Photo Service of San Francisco with operations in Marin County, will show the color slides he took on a two-months visit to Russia last year.

Doty was in Russia when the American Exhibit was in Moscow. He took colored photographs of the Russian people and the way they live, in addition to places of scenic beauty and such Russian points of interest as the Kremlin.

He said he was never stopped or questioned during his two-month visit.

Chamber To Offer 8-Week Course In Practical Politics

An eight-week course in practical politics, on a non-partisan basis, will be offered by the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce next month.

The course, designed by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, will be led by Leonard Blomquist, head of the social science department of the College of Marin.

Enrollees are expected to read their own textbooks prior to each meeting of the group, which will be limited to about 15 persons to each group. The course is to be given under the auspices of the local chamber's legislative affairs committee. Harry Glassman is chairman.

Burton R. Kirchner, chamber president, said the "changing times call for businessmen to become better informed about all levels of political activity."

Those, other than chamber members, who are interested, may enroll by contacting the chamber, 801 B Street.

Board Outlaws Dumping Of Rubbish In Bay

OAKLAND (UPI)—A regulation making it illegal to dump rubbish into San Francisco Bay was unanimously adopted yesterday by the Bay Area Regional Water Pollution Control Board meeting here.

Board officials said the regulation probably will be filed with the secretary of state in Sacramento early next week, and become law 30 days later.

The regulation not only makes it illegal to dump directly into the bay, but also to put trash in a place where it might fall or be carried into the bay.

Frank Marsh To Head Industrial Institute

San Rafael resident Frank E. Marsh, who recently resigned as general manager of the San Francisco Bay Area Council, has been elected president and chief executive officer of the International Industrial Institute, Ltd.

The institute is a non-profit organization founded in 1958 to assist governments of foreign nations in building their economies and to aid industries in creating new markets and material sources.

Marsh, as president, will direct operations, but will concentrate on the industrial development phases of the institute's work. Prior to his joining the council, the Bay Area's civic and industrial development organization, in 1946, Marsh was with the federal government in various capacities.

He is past president of the American Industrial Development Council, a member of the Industrial Council of the Urban Land Institute, and the International Real Estate Federation as well as various other professional and business organizations.

Marsh lives at 120 Bayview Drive.

What year car do the Jones drive?

The Jones drive a Volkswagen, and Volkswagens look alike from year to year.

A Volkswagen is never outmoded. Indeed, no one knows how long a Volkswagen lasts; the first VWs made have not worn out. We hear from VW owners who have clocked over 100,000 miles without engine repair.

If they should ever need it, they will find VW service is as good as the car.

We don't change a car for the sake of change—only to make it better. Over the years almost every part of the VW has in some way changed—but not the heart and face of Volkswagen. There are no out-of-date Volkswagens any more than there are out-of-date violins—and for the same reasons.

Volkswagen owners find this a happy way to drive—and to live. No doubt you will, too. Come in and drive a brand new Volkswagen today.

If You Don't Keep Up With Growth, You Back-Slide

"If we don't solve our parking and traffic problems soon, retail businesses will move from the downtown area out to new shopping centers, leaving our present shopping district to die on the vine."

Doesn't that sound familiar?

It should; we have been hearing it around Marin County ever since the end of World War II.

It reminds us a bit of the old story about the phony wolf cry. People knew wolf cries were phony; so when the wolf did come, and the genuine wolf cry was sounded, nobody took proper precautions.

And the worst happened.

If you visited some old familiar towns in Southern California on your vacation you may have been reminded about this wolf cry matter.

Down in Orange County, one of the festest growing places in California during the past decade, Knott's Berry Farm doesn't have an exclusive on ghost towns. There are some neighboring places that, prior to World War I, were thriving little communities, somewhat like some of Marin's leading business districts of 1960.

With post war growth, their traffic congestion became terrible and their lack of parking intolerable. When beautiful new outlying shopping centers were constructed, attractively landscaped with abundant free parking, customers flocked out of congested areas and out to the new stores.

Downtowns have in fact died on the vine in some towns.

The result is not pretty nor pleasant to behold.

Weatherbeaten "For Lease" signs dangle on weatherbeaten, unkempt empty store buildings.

Property values have sagged (but the cost of maintaining tax-supported services for the areas have NOT dipped; they've continued to go up and so have tax rates).

What really happened to cause these depressed areas?

When progressive leaders called for effective measures to combat traffic congestion and effective parking relief, their calls fell on deaf ears.

"Oh, we aren't that kind of town; progress only brings more people and more problems. Let things be as they always have been and we'll get along all right."

That was the response. (It, too, sounds somewhat familiar; we have heard something like it here in Marin.)

But a community just cannot stand still in the face of a population boom.

As those unfortunate cities in Orange County bear witness, if you don't keep up with growth, you back-slide rapidly.

We hope our municipal officials in San Rafael and elsewhere in Marin will take heed.

The Peanut Butter Set Sighs

It will soon be back to school time for the peanut butter set. Already the lovable little monsters are being paraded through the stores by harassed mothers who see the light of comparative freedom ahead.

School gives children a feeling of importance. By and large they like it, but they aren't above thinking their's is a tough row to hoe. We well remember the little second grader getting his hair cut at the Greenbrae barber shop who sighed to the barber, "How much longer? I've had a hard day, sitting on a hard seat from nine till two!"

Hard seats, mean teachers and the class bully will soon be displaced by bills, taxes and the guy you don't like at the office.

Every age has its problems, but they never seem quite as tough as those of the peanut butter set.

BOYS FLY TO DEATH

Two brothers, 12 and 14, who had vowed to fly or die, did both after stealing a small plane in Pomona.

After flying in erratic circles over a residential district, they crashed to their death in a screaming dive ten minutes later.

The youngsters had been caught trying to make off with another plane only a month before. At the time they told juvenile officers: "We're going to learn to fly, or die trying."

The only qualification these daring boys had for flying was that the older brother had read a book about it and was impatiently eager to put into working practice the few theories he had learned.

It is not easy to harness and direct into constructive channels the boundless imagination and enterprise with which God blesses each boy and girl.

But rather than completely repress youthful curiosity and daring, be patient in guiding the bit of divine greatness in young people. It will seldom be misused if you do.

"He that gathered in the harvest, is a wise son: but he that snoreth in the summer, is the son of confusion.

(Proverbs 10:5)

Bless and guide all youth, O Jesus, so that they will discover their own power for good.

Some Remarks That Leave Airline Hostesses Straight Up In The Air

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that an airline hostess gets tired of hearing:

"Well, looky who's here — the little sister of the Wright brothers!"

"Wake me up when we get to Los Angeles. If we don't get there, don't bother."

"In the old days the hostesses had to be nurses. Now, if you hand 'em a crying baby, they don't know which end to hold up."

"My, miss, I don't see how you whipped up a dinner for 87 people so quick in such a tiny kitchen. Why, it would take me a week."

"If that's the pilot, I've changed my mind. I believe I'll take some insurance after all."

"This is my very first flight. Where is my parachute?"

"Would you please tell the driver to take another road? This one's getting awful bumpy."

"I know you gals get a lot of proposals, but I got a three-day layover in Chicago, and I'd love to show you the town."

"Junior gave me his word he wouldn't touch a thing—if you'd just let him sit in the pilot's lap a while."

"Look, honey, way up here at 30,000 feet how's the government going to know if you poured me a third double bourbon?"

"Flying is so exciting. You never know what city they're going to send your baggage to."

"Those rest room signs are just greek to me, ma'am. I got thrown out of the one marked 'Femmes.' Is it safe for me to go into the one marked 'Hommes?'"

"All I can say is, if God wanted man to fly, he'd have given him feathers in the first place."

"I WOULDN'T pinch her if I were you, Joe. I hear she's secretly married to the co-pilot."

"What do you mean Boston is fogged in and we'll have to go on to Newark? I made my reservation for Boston weeks ago."

"HONEY, IF YOU ever get stranded in Dallas, call me up. With your looks and my credit card we could have a real gasser."

"Who knows how these things get started . . . an unkind remark about Kennedy . . . a dig at Nixon . . . it's the story of mankind. . . !"

Newcomers Need Shoreline Park

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In his letter in favor of a freeway on the shoreline, Ward Montogue (I-J Aug. 19) is using an argument that really works against it, and supports a beautiful scenic highway rather than a wide, high-speed road isolated from the countryside.

That argument is the population problem which many people consider to be the worst crises the world faces in the next centuries.

It's true that, if you believe what the new citizens of California are going to need are subdivision lots, a high-speed highway can be justified on the grounds that it will open West Marin as a part of Commuterville. You can envision a glistening band of all-year houses around the shoulders of Tamalpais, and Muir Beach could well become another Pacifica.

But that is not going to fill the real need of the new arrivals. They are going to find space to live in the bowl of the Bay hills, on up the Sonoma and Napa and Vaca valleys as they have in Santa Clara and Contra Costa counties.

What they are going to need is a shoreline park, one that is preserved as much as possible in all its beauty, one that is landscaped wherever there is necessary road and construction work, and one that slows the motorist down to a pace where he can enjoy the scenery and not spoil the drive for others too.

Actually, the present Highway 1 does that magnificently, and is known the world spectacularly beautiful roads over as one of the more in the world. And Panomamic Way is an alternative almost equally superb.

It's all very well to argue that the hikers and nature-lovers and owners of quiet week-end cottages are "selfish" in wanting to preserve "the great God-given, beautiful clean air of a healthy living area." No doubt there is selfishness on both sides—above all, that of the real estate developers who want to make money out of subdivisions.

Most of us are willing to see the present highway widened so long as it stays basically a two-lane road, with the emphasis on the scenery. We would stand for some straightening, particularly by some of those beautiful bridges across the gulches that the Highway Division can build if it tries (see San Simeon road, Donner Pass).

We don't want a high-speed "tunnel" gashing the hills, across which it would be illegal for hikers to walk, along which cyclists will be forbidden, and from which it will be impossible for hiking clubs to load and unload their passengers.

Unlovely People Jam Lovely Spots

Editor,
Independent-Journal:

Hail the voice crying in the wilderness! To the wonderful letter by J. C. Danielson appearing in Tuesday's issue, may we add a heart-felt "we too!"

Have you not seen the invaders jamming the streets, highways, beaches and parks on our lovely weekends? Have you, Mr. Editor, ever tired to spend a Sunday at Camp Taylor ? Or at Stinson Beach?

Marinites are unable to enjoy Marin during the week-end hours of leisure . . . they find all the lovely sites jammed with quite unlovely people who seem to take great pleasure in distributing candy wrappers and paper cups throughout the highways and byways. On a score-keeping basis, we feel sure that they make extra points for each beer can, coke bottle and paper bag that they can throw from a moving vehicle.

They care not that the park rangers are underpaid and dedicated men who struggle to maintain our beauty spots, but they make every effort possible to deface and destroy the loveliness that we taxpayers have paid (highly) to enjoy . . . and you will find that Marinites take pride in their parks and wish to use, but not abuse!

Instead of a super highway (or turning over more of our Marin to the beaches and parks) why don't we band together to have the Cow Palace designated a state park and let the herd gather there on weekends!

Bless Mr. Danielson—there are many of us in accord!

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

First of a series of origin and destination surveys got under way to provide information and statistics for a long-sought Marin County Master road plan.

On a basis of local option action, the housing expediter in Washington removed rent controls from Belvedere. The Belvedere City Council had passed a resolution de-controlling rents after public hearing with only one protest.

20 YEARS AGO

Fred Cairns, secretary-manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, suggested to the secretary of the Vallejo chamber that San Rafael be listed as a possible outlet for employees of the Mare Island Navy Yard whose increasing numbers under the national defense program have overtaxed accommodations in nearby towns. About 200 were already commuting from San Rafael.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A car full of unattached females pulled up at the rim of the Grand Canyon. Evidently the ladies had been driving all night. Full of pep, however, they piled out and one of them rushed over to the iron rail. Then she woke up a dozen guests of the hotel across the road by shrilling, "It's all they say it is, girls. Come quick and look. It's open!"

Leopold Godowsky, the late composer, was subject to insomnia. His son, who lived with him until his marriage, was a sound, heavy sleeper. When the father was having a particularly bad night, it was his amiable practice to enter his son's room, shake him vigorously, and exclaim, "What's the matter, my poor boy? Can't you sleep either?"

A housewife, preparing dinner in the kitchen, heard her husband enter the apartment a full hour ahead of his usual time. What she did not know was that he had persuaded his boss to come with him for a "taste of home cooking." Cheerily she called out, "Hi, Snoogie, I see old drizzle puss let you sneak off early this evening!"

Lucky Hospital Patients Now Have Their Histories Put On IBM

If it is any source of comfort to Marin General Hospital patients, henceforth, should their temperature rise a bit or if that old duodenal ulcer takes a turn for the worse, the information is recorded on a nationwide form sheet by an electronic brain.

The New Look is collecting objective data on everything from a headache to an acute case of cholelithiasis is the work of the Professional Activity Study, more intimately known to the gauze mask set as PAS.

THE ORGANIZATION began in 1950 with an experimental collection and tabulation of gross data on patient care in 15 Michigan hospitals. Since then it has grown to include, as of last March, 136 member hospitals in 23 states and Puerto. Rico. Between them they discharge an estimated 1,300,000 patients a year proving, if nothing else, that business is good.

Basically, the system provides each participating hospital with a complete rundown on every patient treated in all of the member hospitals.

THE TABULATION of you and your ailment begins on your discharge—after you have paid your bill, that is. The medical record librarian fills out a form, in code, listing your every pulse beat and aspirin tablet from the time they wheeled you in the front door.

The completed form is mailed to the PAS home office in Battle Creek, Mich., where an IBM machine, presumably with a medical degree, chews up the information and spits it out on even more condensed forms, changing your name to a number and placing you on the bronchopneumonia diagnosis sheet for the month, assuming that is what was ailing you.

From this form, it is a simple matter for a doctor with a problem in bronchopneumonia to take a quick rundown of a column of roughly a dozen numbers and know more about you than your mother does.

You are now patient No. 6974 who was treated on the medical service by physician No. 88. You were in the hospital three days, you were discharged alive, you are 22 years of age and a male.

Furthermore, you had no chest X-ray and your temperature on admission was elevated one degree F. Your admission hemoglobin was 11 grams, a complete blood count was performed as well as a uninalysis which showed no sugar or albumin. A bacterial smear was taken and for therapy you were given anti-biotics.

YOUR BILL, the coded report notes, was paid by commercial insurance.

PAS also prepares three more complete summaries for each hospital every six months covering diagnostic and operational history of every case that rolled down the corridors. Dead or alive. By the end of this year, PAS expects to have in its files a history of 4,300,000 cases, all of which is available to doctors in the member hospitals.

The charge to the hospitals is 25 cents per patient discharged, a reasonable fee, I would say, for all the fuss and bother it must be for them to keep the bronchopneumonias separated from chronic nephritis, and vice versa.

UNDOUBTEDLY, it will save a lot of doctors a lot of time, eliminating as it will the need for shop talk over cocktails, such as: "Say Joe, I've been meaning to ask you —how'd you make out on that generalized arteriosclerosis you were working on last week?"

And think of the brevity with which patients themselves can tell about their operations.

"My dear, did you hear about my 491.9? It was dreadfully 832A. Doctor 72 said it was simply the biggest 473.6 he had ever laid eyes on . . ."

Real Problem Of Congo And The World Is Restoring Communications

WASHINGTON—The overriding problem in the Congo is nowhere near a solution, but one thing about it is becoming much clearer. It is that the problem is insoluble unless both Washington and Moscow will suport the U.N.

The U.N. is engaged in the extremely delicate task of trying to maintain law and order in the whole country without participating in the civil conflict between separate parts of it—between Lumumba's central government at Leopoldville and Tshombe's dissident government in Katanga.

This task cannot be carried out as long as either of the Congolese factions believes it can appeal over the head of the U.N. mission—Lumumba to the Soviet Union, Tshombe to Belgium and NATO and the United States.

IN ALL THAT has been said about the collapse of the summit, the question to which we most need the answer is how much the high policy of the Soviet Union has turned against the kind of co-existence which prevailed in the eyar before the summit meeting was to take place.

For a year or more before May 15, Moscow, while renouncing nothing of its appeal to the people in the old colonial empire, was patient with and tolerant of the difficulties of the transition from colonialism.

This was conspicuously the case in Mr. K.'s abstentation from the Algerian conflict and in his moral support of Gen. de Gaulle's policy. But it was also true that in the other disturbed parts of Africa, the tempo of the Soviet propaganda and infiltration was moderate.

SINCE THE SUMMIT crisis in May, the tempo has been greatly increased in Africa, Asia and Latin America. The Soviet Union, with China playing some part, is now instigating by all means short of war uprising against Western, and particularly against United States, influence.

We are faced with the fact, which no serious person can deny, that our own power to hold and gain influence is declining as compared with the Soviets. How to restore our power and influence is the paramount question before the country.

It is such a momentous question that we cannot afford to let it become confused and fudged in the campaign. But it does become confused and fudged when we pretend that American power and influence can be restored by debating with the Russians.

IT CANNOT BE restored by making speeches, and those who regard the problem of standing up to the Russians as standing up to them in a debate, do not understand the problem of standing up to the Russians.

The real problem, as the affair of the Congo illustrates, is to achieve enough power and influence in the world to induce and to push the Soviet Union into overcoming the rupture of diplomatic relations and to restore the communications which were broken off last May.

The world is too dangerous a place if there is no communication among the great powers.

CAKE SAYS WELCOME — Dr. Stephen E. Epler, new director of College of Marin, brandishes the knife over a huge cake welcoming him to Marin County. His style seems to amuse (right to left) Mrs. Daniel F. Deedy, president of the college board of trustees; Dr. Julio L. Bortolazzo, superintendent of San Mateo Junior College, principal speaker, and Fred F. Enemark, president of Marin Industrial Development Foundation which sponsored yesterday's welcoming luncheon. Actually, Dr. Epler didn't use the knife. Mrs. Epler put the first cut in the cake.

New College Of Marin Director Welcomed At Business Luncheon

Nearly 100 leading Marin business and educational leaders welcomed Dr. Stephen E. Epler, newly named College of Marin director, at a reception and luncheon yesterday in Corte Madera.

The group, invited by the Marin Industrial Development Foundation, heard Dr. Julio L. Bortolazzo, superintendent of San Mateo Junior College, praise Dr. Epler and at the same time warn Marin that it "should not be penny-wise and pound-foolish" in development of its college facility in view of the tremendous growth which can be expected in the years immediately ahead.

Fred F. Enemark, president of the foundation, presided at the meeting. He introduced Mrs. Daniel F. Deedy, president of the college board of trustees. She praised college president Ward Austin, who retires next June. Then she introduced Dr. Epler, who is to succeed Austin in the presidency.

Others at the head table were Austin, Walter Castro, chairman of the county board of supervisors; Mrs. Enemark and Mrs. Epler.

Dr. Epler spoke briefly in appreciation of the luncheon and reception. He called Marin "a good junior college now," but said he knew the people of the county expected it to grow and improve under the challenge of increased demands upon it.

Dr. Bortolazzo, who has known and worked with Dr. Epler over a 15-year period, opened his speech by reading a Reporter's Notebook column clipped from the Independent-Journal and lightly detailing the tremendous requirements which the college board sought in a new director.

He pointed out Dr. Epler had been selected from 90 qualified applicants who had applied and been screened to six for the trustees' final selection. The college got the best possible man, he said.

Then he turned to the job ahead. California is doing the best job in higher education of any state in the Union, he declared. The state has more than 400,000 college students, that's 70,000 more than New York state has. A national magazine, he said, recently told its readers the best thing parents of a college-age student could do is "move to California."

Yet there are problems, he warned. At present only one in three California student qualified to go, finishes college. One enters and drops out, and the other one doesn't ever get the opportunity to enroll. This must be improved, he said.

In addition, the huge post-war birthrate will catch up with the colleges in the next four years.

While the enrollment is spiraling, costs will too. Dr. Bortolazzo said college costs would double in this decade. State college will cost $3,400 per year per student by 1970, he predicted.

In addition to quantity, however, he pleaded for better quality and better teaching. He warned that unless quality is kept up, junior colleges face the prospect of being stereotyped as schools for also rans."

Junior colleges should strive for excellence in three major fields, he said. (1) Preparation of students for continued study at four year colleges. (2) Preparation for work as technicians, in professional fields, crafts and other vocations. (3) Continuing life-long education, "general education for the community."

He called College of Marin a "truly community college" and urged that it be kept that way. Taxes are high and probably will be higher, he went on, but local support of colleges costs less per student because local control "means a much more watchful attitude of the taxpayers."

Even though junior colleges are interested in more state support, they must not lose the local control, he declared. At present, junior colleges get only about 28 per cent in state support while high-schools get 60 per cent and elementary schools 50 per cent.

He said College of Marin needs a master plan for the next 25 years of big enrollments, and he urged the community not to be "penny-wise and pound foolish," to plan now, obtain needed new sites now and not wait for land prices to climb still higher.

The luncheon was held in Bob's of Marin at The Edgewater.

Mill Valley Board To Meet Sept. 1

The Mill Valley School District board will consider three separate aspects on the subject of community relations at its meeting at 8 p.m., Sept. 1, in the district office.

One will be the recommendations of consultant Donald Kase on an opinion poll which he analyzed. Another will be recommendations made by Dist. Supt. G. Robert McConnell and the third, the possible adoption of definite policies on community relations.

Also on the agenda will be a report by J. L. De Smet on the results of one year's work by the policy committee on revising the district's policies. The board will also attempt ot set up a salary standards committee to advise the board on policies for setting salaries.

Seminary's Students To Learn Of Area

The 140 new students at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary will receive an introduction to California and the Bay Area as part of their orientation session at 9 a.m., tomorrow.

The introduction, according to Harry R. Koontz, publicity director, is the theme of the session.

In a series of talks Dr. L. A. Brown, professor of missions and comparative religions, will start the session by discussing California. Dr. William A. Carleton, seminary dean, will speak on "the student's work load" assisted by Koontz.

The field work program and the seminary library will be introduced by Dr. Elmer L. Gray and Dr. A. J. Hyatt. Dr. Harold K. Graves, seminary president, will introduce the faculty and staff members and then address the students on "The spirit and purpose of Golden Gate Seminary."

Convocation exercises will offically open the school's 17th session Tuesday at 9:45 a.m. Dr. J. Lyn Elder, professor of pastoral care at the seminary, will speak on "The Nature and Function of the Pastoral Ministry."

Southern Pacific Will Combine Two Train Schedules

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Southern Pacific Railroad has announced plans to combine its City of San Francisco and Overland trains between San Francisco and Ogden, Utah, on Sept. 25.

C. E. Peterson, an S.P. vice president, said the consolidation was necessary because of new schedules which would carry the two trains over the route at the same times.

The new schedules, he said, were needed because other railroads had changed their timetables.

Peterson said all stops made by the two trains now will be made by the consolidated train, and that service east of Ogden will be unchanged. The City of San Francisco goes to Chicago and the Overland to St. Louis.

Only The Proponents Show Up For Discussion On Shelter Cove

Opposition to Sausalito city purchase of two submerged Shelter Cove lots had to be restricted to anonymous questioners on the weekly "Marin Sounding Board" broadcast over radio station KTIM yesterday.

Kitty Oppenheimer as moderator explained that though she had no trouble collecting four proponents, those against it declined to speak before a decision by the Marin County Supreme Court as to legality. Views of the supporters and their answers to queries will be rebroadcast by tape recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Mayor Phil Ehrlich Jr. laid most of the basic ground in his initial presentation, saying that the city counsel had been legally advised that such a purchase wasn't appropriate subject for a referendum. He upheld the soundness of what he called "a bargain buy."

City policy for years, he said, has been to preserve much of "the beautiful unique waterfront" so that more than 1,000 yards have been acquired. In this instance, Ehrlich felt that value was especially good with a price of $63,000 as against an $84,000 appraised price and a reported offer of $124,000, while $29,000 in private funds had been raised by the Sausalito Foundation.

Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford), a strong supporter of the foundation, said she had contributed $15,000, and "if I had the funds I'd purchase the entire waterfront and give it to the city to stop the controversy."

Instead of wasting money on an expensive referendum, said Miss Stanford, all available funds should go to buying more waterfront view. "To destroy this view would be wrong," she declared.

Roy Starbird, a Sausalito resident, sought to make some presentation of contrary views but said that personally "I am for the purchase."

Neither for any socialistic concepts nor coercion, Starbird said that preservation of both individual rights and the public interest is important. But in this case, he said, it seemed important that there be a maximum of picturesque view both for people coming into Sausalito and for residents looking down the hill.

A statement was read by Donald Duncan, president of the foundation, who described as non-profit and non-political his organization dedicated to preservation of Sausalito's civic beauties.

"Shelter Cove is symbolic as a scenic asset of Sausalito," he said. The preference of his group would have been, according to Duncan, full outright purchase of the cove without any use of city funds. But in any case he felt that "at least $7,000 was saved by paying cash," this amount being estimated later by others as perhaps as much as $10,000.

Duncan said that helping to buy the cove is "only a first project for the foundation" which has many other later ones in mind.

Questioned as to whether he was afraid to put the issue to a vote, Ehrlich said there was no such fears because press and public had shown general approval. But aside from legal opinion that this was no fit issue to put to a referendum, Ehrlich said that desire for full vindication couldn't obscure the point that more than $1,000 cost would be entailed.

"Rather than hire attorneys, they should contribute to the foundation," said Miss Stanford.

Miss Stanford responded to a question about taking the properties off the tax rolls by retorting that after all, visitors who needed such assets as a waterfront view were contributing one cent out of every dollar they spent as tax for the city.

Ehrlich denied that the purchase was a "high-handed" action as charged by one questioner and stressed that there had been "almost no public opposition" to the acquisition.

Firemen's Dance Tickets At Door

Tickets for the Belvedere Volunteer Firemen's annual dance tonight may be purchased at the door, according to chairman John V. Ericson.

Advance reservations may be made with Ericson who lives on Peninsula Road in Belvedere, or any member of the volunteer fire department. The dance will be held from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. at the Corinthian Yacht Club with a buffet supper served at midnight.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Aug. 26, the 239th day of the year, with 127 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning star is Mars.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1584, Dutch painter Frans Hals was born.

In 1842, the U.S. Congress established the beginning of the government's fiscal year as July 1.

In 1873, Dr. Lee De Forest was born. His invention of the three-element vacuum tube made possible modern electronics technology.

In 1883, the volcano at Krakatoa in the Netherlands East Indies erupted, killing an estimated 36,000 persons.

In 1920, the 19th amendment to the constitution, providing for suffrage for women, was declared operative by the secretary of state.

A thought for today: Scottish essayist Thomas Carlyle said: "The great law of culture is: Let each become all that he was created capable of being."

College Trustees Name Heads Of Divisions

A new divisional organization of the College of Marin faculty, first proposed in the fall of 1959, was officially created last night and five division heads were named by the trustees.

Heading the business and home economics division will be Weaver Meadows. Engineering, mathematics and science will be under the direction of Carl Cherry. The fine arts division, including architecture, art, drama, music and speech, will be headed by Edwin Cadogan. The liberal arts, which takes in English, language and social science, will be under the direction of George Ball. Physical education and hygiene will be directed by Harry J. Pieper.

The new chairmen will receive $600 a year more than their present salaries. All were former department heads, for which they were paid an additional $200.

The remaining department heads who will continue to hold that title are: E. D. Lewis, English; Paul Wilson, life science; John Myers, music; C. A. Pulskamp, physical education; and Leonard Blomquist, science.

The division heads, proposed by a committee on college organization, were recommended to the board by Stephen E. Epler, director of the college and Paul Clymer, dean of instruction.

According to Epler, the division heads will have their teaching loads reduced, and will be responsible for curriculum, budgets, supervision of probationary teachers and selection of new teachers in their divisions.

The positions will be subject to review at the end of each year, Epler said.

Approving the appointments without dissent were Trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy, Rupert E. Kempf and Robert E. Oliver. Two trustees, George G. Washburn and Kent O. Seymour, were not present.

Rifle Mishap Hurts Milker At Nicasio

Larry E. Smith, 17, a milker on the Bull Tail Ranch in Nicasio, suffered a shoulder wound Wednesday night when a .22 caliber rifle he was cleaning accidentally discharged.

Doctors at San Rafael General took eight stitches to close the wound in his left shoulder. Smith told sheriff's deputies he was cleaning his automatic rifle in the ranch bunkhouse.

KOBY'S KOSHER KERRY KUMS BACK HOME

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Koby's Kerry blue terrier has been caught and from the looks of him he'll be again lapping up the kosher cooking he has been so long accustomed to.

The 3-year-old purebred pooch with the Kerry blue terrier's goatee Monday night wandered out of the home of his owner, druggist Ken Koby.

Koby issued a plea to anyone finding him not to feed him pork but only the kosher food he was used to.

The druggist was flooded with phone calls, and yesterday the dog, named Graymar Sputnik, was found.

Where? About one and one-half miles from the Koby home, reportedly in front of a kosher delicatessen.

Complete Training

Completing two months of summer training at Camp Roberts with their Army reserve unit are Lt. Col. Crawford H. Bates of Mill Valley, Maj. Milton E. Johnson of Woodacre and Lt. Col. Floyd Patterson of San Rafael. All are members of the 351st Civil Affairs Unit of Mountain View.

Better Library Service Seen For Bay Area

Improved library service for Marin County is forecast as result of congressional approval of a bill to continue the Library Services Act.

Presidential signature is expected and this will give the North Bay Cooperative Library System "a real chance to prove itself," according to Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera).

Under this system 14 public libraries and 41 rural library stations in Marin, Sonoma, Napa, Lake and Mendocino Counties pool resources to help one another provide "big city" service to rural and small city residents.

The cooperative system went into effect July 1 as a demonstration project with help of a $100,000 Library Services Act federal grant but will not be in full operation till next month. Continuation of the federal aid program means the project can continue.

Marin County Library stations are at Belvedere-Tiburon, Bolinas, Corte Madera, Fairfax, Inverness, Kentfield, Marin City, Novato, Point Reyes Station, Lagunitas, San Quentin, Stinson Beach, Tamalpais Valley and Tomales.

IN FACT, RUBBISH!

He Thinks Bill For Sapling Is Sappy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rubbish collector Tony Augustyn is not going to let a sapling make a sap of him, he declares. And county tree trimmers aren't going to trim him.

In short, he's not going to pay a county bill for $108.64 for replacement of a tree damaged by one of his trash trucks.

The county replaced the damaged 18-foot eucalyptus with a sapling pepper tree. Tony got the bill.

"To cover cost of removal and replacement of parkway tree knocked down at 5445 W. 118th Street," it read.

1 "schinus Terebinthifelia, $2.59; 1 redwood stake, 55 cents; 1 tree trimmer foreman, 1 hour, $5.34;; 1 tree trimmer subforeman, 3 hours $14.39; 3 tree trimmers, 7 hours, $30.20; 3 tree laborers, 8 hours, $29.47; 1 truck driver, 1 hour, $4.08; 1 truck driver 3 hours, $13.63; 1 truck M-1777, 14 miles, $2.62; 1 relief truck, M-1877, 6 miles, 64 cents; 1 car, 5 miles, 70 cents; dump fee, $4.43.

Augustyin, owner of the T&R Disposal Co. said one of his trucks hit the branch while driving near the curb.

"But that's no reason for the county to send out an army to haul one tree away and plant another little one," he said. "It's too much money."

The county parks and recreation department says it'll take the dispute to small claims court. A spokesman said the bill is reasonable.

"It represents the gross cost to the county," he said, "taking into account all factors—employees' retirement, maintenance to cars and trucks and so forth.

"That man will just have to pay, that's all."

Tony says they can go climb tree.

Von Saltza Smashes Record In Opening Olympic Race

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

ROME—Golden-haired Chris von Saltza of Saratoga, Calif., smashed the Olympic record for the women's 100-meter freestyle swim today when she won her trial heat by five yards in one minute, 1.9 seconds.

The husky, 16-year-old schoolgirl eclipsed by one-tenth of a second the mark of 1:02.0 set in 1956 by Australia's Dawn Fraser. She thus became the first American athlete to break a record in this year's Olympics.

Miss Fraser, 21-year-old secretary from Sydney who is defending her title in this event, narrowly missed her own record when she won her heat in 1:02.1. Ilsa Konrads, 16-year-old Aussie star, was another heat winner in 1:04.2.

Miss von Saltza was highly elated by her new record because "I wasn't really pushing it." But she admitted, "to win I'll have to do better—close to a minute. An Olympic record doesn't do much good if you don't win in the end."

The new record capped a series of encouraging performances by U. S. athletes, even if Russia did draw first blood in the battle for the unofficial team title by winning an unexpected bronze medal in cycling.

The first gold medal of the games—only one to be decided today—went, fittingly, to host, Italy, and the first record to be broken fell to a German girl.

But four swift swimmers sent the United States off to a fast start by qualifying in morning competition and then Miss von Saltza took over.

White-haired Lance Larson of El Monte, Calif., posted the fastest time in heats for the men's 100-meter freestyle swim when he was timed in 55.7 seconds—only three-tenth of a second over the Olympic record.

Larson was joined in qualifying for this afternoon's semi-finals by Bruce Hunter of Cambridge, Mass., a few minutes later Patty Kempner of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Ann Warner of Menlo Park, Calif., qualified for tomorrow night's final in the women's 200-meter breast stroke although neither won her trial heat.

Italy, which has gone all out to stage the games of the XVII Olympiad, reaped its first reward when its 100-meter cycling team captured the first gold medal to be decided.

The four-man Italian team covered the distance of about 63 miles down beautiful highway from cycling stadium here toward Ostia in 2:14:33.53, ignoring blazing sun and terrific heat. A German team composed of East Germans took the silver medal for second place in 2:16:56.31. The competition was run against the clock.

Russia captured its first medal of the games in this event—a bronze one for third place, thus drawing first blood in its duel with the United States for the unofficial team championship. The Soviet team, which was timed in 2:18:41.67 was a complete surprise, for cycling experts had not expected the Russians to figure in this event.

Russia also got off to a successful start in basketball, where it hopes to upset the United States for the first time. Even though the Soviets kept highly-publicized, seven-foot, two-inch Jan Kruminisch on the bench, they still had too much height for Mexico and scored an easy 66-49 victory.

Wiltrud Urselmann of Germany set the first record when she won her heat in the women's 200-meter breaststroke in 2:52.0, breaking the mark of 2:53.1 set by U. Happe of Germany in 1956.

Hunter, the first Yank to see action today, streaked to victory in his heat of the men's 100-meter freestyle in 56.5 seconds.

EASY, NONCHALANT

Russ Wowed By Thomas' Jumping

ROME (UPI)—The Russian and U.S. track teams staged a joint workout today and the Soviet athletes left the sunbaked stadium sadder and wiser and more convinced than ever that this will be a Stars and Stripes Olympiad.

The whole situation was caught in one single moment at at the high jump pit when John Thomas, the Boston long boy, limbered up for a try at six-feet-high and noticed a stream of Russians hurrying over, cameras in hand, to watch him leap.

The 19-year-old world record holder gave Coach Bud Winter a nod and the bar was lifted to seven feet. Thomas went over it casually, nonchalantly—even insolently—to gasps of "zamechatelno," which means wonderful in Russian.

Thomas easily cleared the same height again and Winter chuckled:

"John is giving them a little psychological handicap to worry about."

One look at the serious face of Russia's high jump hope, Valeriy Brunel, whose top mark is seven feet, 1½ inches told that the strategy had worked.

JOINT WORKOUT

Only a few members of each squad turned up at the practice stadium for the joint workout which was suggested by the Russian coach, Gabriel Korobkov. It was a friendly gesture reciprocated with equal friendliness by the Americans.

The world's three best decathlon performers drew most of the attention. The United States' Rafer Johnson took movie camera pictures of his two rivals, C. K. Yang of UCLA and the Republic of China and Vassily Kuznetsov, the Russian former world record holder.

Kuznetsov said to Yang:

"You are very good"—and he gave a thumbs up sign.

When Winter of San Jose State took the camera and as Johnson posed with Kuznetsov, the Russian said:

"I congratulate you on your record."

Johnson smiled and said:

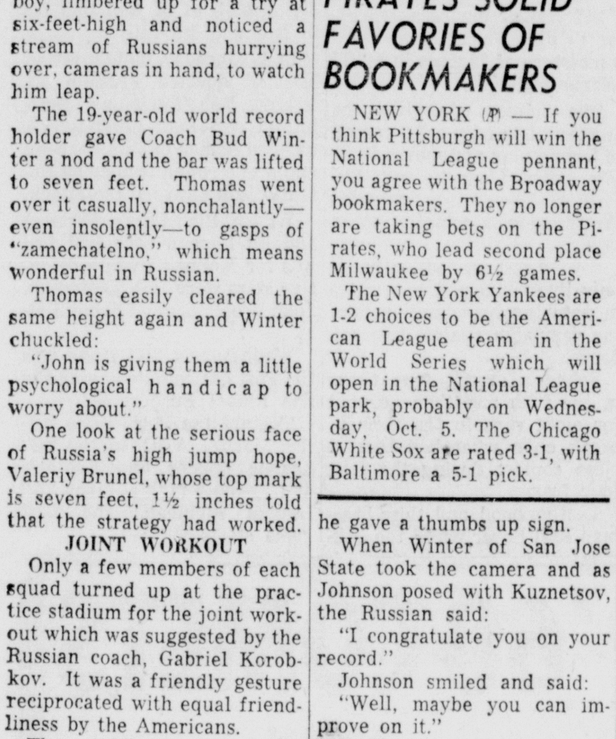
"Well, maybe you can improve on it."

Coach George Eastman said the entire U. S. squad was in good shape with the possible exception of Dave Edstrom of Sherwood, Ore., number two man in the decathlon. But Edstrom, after topping a 51 feet with the shot put, said he thought he would be all right by the time competition rolls around.

PIRATES SOLID FAVORIES OF BOOKMAKERS

NEW YORK (AP) — If you think Pittsburgh will win the National League pennant, you agree with the Broadway bookmakers. They no longer are taking bets on the Pirates, who lead second place Milwaukee by 6½ games.

The New York Yankees are 1-2 choices to be the American League team in the World Series which will open in the National League park, probably on Wednesday, Oct. 5. The Chicago White Sox are rated 3-1, with Baltimore a 5-1 pick.



FRIENDLY CHAT—High jump champion John Thomas of U.S. stops for chat with Russia's women's high jump star Taisia Tobenchik at Rome today. Track and field competition won't be held until next week, but teams are training daily. (AP Wirephoto)

Braves Invade S.F. Tonight; Spahn To Oppose Billy O'Dell

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Giants got their biggest inning of the season, a seven-run whopper against Cincinnati.

But there's little time to savor it, for second place Milwaukee comes to town tonight for a three-game series.

The first Brave hurler will be lefty Warren Spahn, going strong at 39 with a 15-7 record. He'll face southpaw Billy O'Dell (7-9).

And the fifth place Giants are almost certain to catch Lew Burdette, also 15-7, during the set. When he starts he'll be after his fourth straight shutout, one a no-hitter against Philadelphia.

Willie Mays highlighted the seven-run second yesterday with an inside-the-park grand slam homer off starter and loser Claude Osteen.

The 8-5 triumph gave the Giants the series 2-1.

Sam Jones staggered to his 14th victory, needing ninth inning help from John Antonelli after giving up 12 hits, seven of them for extra bases. Ed Bailey and Vada Pinson had homers.

But Sam struck out 11, two each in four innings.

Sam said his arm was so stiff, "it's a wonder I got anyone out." He added he made more than his share of mistakes and the box score showed he wasn't kidding.

A crowd of 9,848 paid customers plus 8,000 youngsters in free watched the Giants go behind in the first when Billy Martin tripled and Frank Robinson doubled.

But in the second, Osteen aftergetting Felipe Alou on a fly, gave up a single to Orlando Cepeda and walks to Willie Kirkland and Bob Schmidt. Ed Bressoud drove in one run with an infield single and Jones singled to load the bases.

After Jim Davenport forced the pitcher, Joe Amalfitano walked. Mays hit a shot to the right centerfield fence, saw he had a chance rounding third and came home as second baseman Martin threw wide of the plate. It was Willie's 27th homer.

Kirkland his his 14th in the third off Bill Henry, second of four Redleg pitchers.

Manager Tom Sheehan said Juan Marichal, his 21-year-old rookie with four straight victories, should be able to pitch late next week. Marichal has been bothered by muscle spasms in his hip.

Russ Cagers Easy Winners Without Ace

ROME (UPI)—Russia, keeping gigantic Jan Kruminsch on the bench, opened its drive to unseat the United States as Olympic basketball champion today by easily defeating Mexico, 66-49, in an opening round game.

Hungary romped to a 93-66 victory over Japan in the game that opened the tournament.

The United States, which never has lost a basketball game in Olympic competition and this year presents a star-studded array led by All-Americans Oscar Robertson and Jerry West, was slated to meet Italy later today in its first game.

The schedule gave the Russians a chance to show their stuff first, and they displayed superior height even without the seven-foot, two-inch Kruminisch and enough shooting to down the game Mexicans.

SLOW START

The game got off to a slow start with Russia leading for seven minutes until Mexico tied the score at 9-9. From then on, however, the Russians began to walk away. At the half they led, 28-17.

Scoring was low mainly because of the deliberate tactics of both teams.

In the second half there was no chance for the Mexicans. They played well but could not handle the taller Russians who controlled both backboards.

The Russians kept their lead and the closest the Mexicans came was 10 points midway in final half.

Elliott Says He's Better Than Ever

ROME (AP)—Poised on the brink of his first Olympic attempt, Herb Elliott, holder of the world's mile record, said today he is turning in faster practice times than ever before.

The 22-year-old marvel miler from Australia also reported he is "in good shape" for his 1,500 meter Olympic title bid and "everything is going fine."

"Some people claim I am not so fast now as I was in 1958," he added, "but we'll have to wait and see." It was in 1958 that he set world marks of 3:54.5 for the mile and 3:36.0 for 1,500 meters.

Elliott did not disclose what times he has achieved in tune-up sessions for the Olympic title.

Alternating Quarterbacks Won't Win Championship In Pro League

HANLEY

All pro football quarterbacks operate just a little differently. Their timing is different. Their method of throwing is different. When a team becomes accustomed to one quarterback's style it finds it difficult to adjust to another. Pro football is a passing game, the success of which depends upon one, not two, quarterbacks.

George Halas is one of the smartest coaches in the business and yet, for the past several years, he has been making the same mistake—alternating Ed Brown and Zeke Bratowski at quarterback. Halas' Bears will not dethrone Baltimore's Colts as long as he continues this practice. The same goes for Red Hickey and the 49ers if he switches from Y. A. Tittle to John Brodie and vice versa.

Pro football games are won on the sound throwing arm of a competent quarterback. It has been that way since the days of Sammy Baugh, Sid Luckman and Cecil Isbell. In the few years that the Colts have become the dominant team in pro football, their personnel hasn't changed much with one exception — John Unitas who made a good team a great one.

DESPITE THE Giffords and Tripletts and Websters, Charlie Conerly is the heart and arm of the New York Giants. What happened last year when Old Man Conerly was sidelined for two games with injuries? The Giants couldn't get one TD, but salvaged one of those games because Pat Summerall kicked three field goals.

With all due respect to Brodie, what happened when Tittle was laid out by the Colts in Baltimore last year? The 49ers were eliminated from a race in which Tittle has kept them.

FOR SEVERAL years the Rams tried to win alternating Bob Waterfield and Norm Van Brocklin, two of the best, and finally began alternating The Dutchman and Billy Wade following Waterfield's retirement from active playing. They ultimately got smart and settled on Wade, sending Van Brocklin to the Philadelphia Eagles.

Resurgence of the Eagles is attributable to Van Brocklin just as the new found prowess of Pittsburgh's Steelers is due to Bobby Layne. When Detroit's Lions were at their peak, Layne was the operator. Then the Lions saw a chance to acquire the talented Tobin Rote from Green Bay. It seemed like ag reat move—two outstanding quarterbacks instead of one. But it didn't work out. The Lions couldn't switch gears every time quarterbacks were changed so Layne was dealt to the Steelers and Rote held the QB job until he retired.

PAUL BROWN never gave George Ratterman a second thought when Otto Graham was around. He is the one pro football coach who never asked his team to shift gears with shifting quarterbacks, until forced to do it after Graham retired. Brown built his invincible Cleveland Browns over a long period at the Great Lakes during the closing phase of World War II. His key man, of course, was Graham. In rebuilding in the last couple of years, Brown has tried Tom O'Connell, Milt Plum and Jim Ninowski and some others. It looks now like Plum has the job.

The record is there for all to see. Great pro clubs have always flown on one wing.

Swimming Pool Sales Announced

A former Marin County resident is returning here to sell swimming pools.

F. Thomas Richey of San Mateo has the distributorship in Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo Counties for the International Swimming Pool Corp. The offices of Richey Enterprises will be at 3 Lovell Street, San Rafael.

Richey's pools will be built by the Clark Construction Co. of San Rafael.

The type of pool he sells is unusual, Richey says. Unlike the conventional pools, it is built above ground; no excavation is necessary. The pools have redwood fences and steps which automatically raise, a safety feature for children's protection.

Richey formerly lived in Marin for 15 years. He previously was a Gray Line sightseeing bus driver and at one time was a vacuum cleaner distributor in Marin.

He and his wife, Margaret, were married in San Rafael in 1944, and have a daughter, Janice, 4.

A display pool is being built on the United Market lot at Third and Irwin Streets.

280 Tee Off In Cal Open Tourney

SANTA MARIA (AP)—A field of 280 set out today in the second half of the qualifying round for the California Open Golf Championship.

Hanford's Jim Griffiths led the first day's competitors yesterday with a 6-under-par 33-33—66 over the Santa Maria Country Club course. He was followed by Bud Holscher of North Hollywood and Gary Loustalot, Sacramento, both 35-33—68.

The field will be cut to the top 90 pros and 20 amateurs after 36 holes. The 42nd annual championship will close Sunday.

49ers Appear Better Than Ever

By HARRY JUPITER

MORAGA (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers have rarely looked so good.

The question is, though, will their fans love them in December as they do in August?

The 49ers, with three exhibition victories in three outings, have looked better each time they've taken the field.

San Francisco has never won a Western Division title in the National Football League. Is this the year?

"Hold on," says Coach Red Hickey. "We've got a long, long way to go."

The genial redhead, whose intense competitive drive is often obscured by his easy-going nature, makes no predictions.

But there's an air pervading the camp this year that's rarely been here before. Good isn't quite enough any more. It's perfection that Hickey wants.

And the showing of his aging veterans and hungry rookies indicate they're going all out to give it to him.

Take Hugh McElhenny. At 31 and in his ninth pro season, Hurryin' Hugh is scurryin' like he hasn't for several years. He hardly carried the ball in 1959, but he's having his number called more this year and responding with yardage. There's a new kick to his stride.

Take Leo Nomellini — 36 years old and in his 11th pro season. Nomo spent almost as much time in the Philadelphia backfield last Sunday as the Eagles did. Leo resents "old age" creeping up and he's determined not to show it.

Take John Brodie, who may finally be coming into his own in his fourth year with San Francisco. Brodie finally looked like a professional Sunday as he smoothly moved the 49ers to two first quarter touchdowns.

Take a bunch of fine rookies, led by three dandy pass-grabbing ends—Dee Mackey, Monty Stickles and Tom Osborne. The kids give Y. A. Tittle and Brodie a reception crew that, added to the veterans, might prove the best in the league this year.

And the veteran receivers—Billy Wilson, R. C. Owens, Clyde Conner and McElhenny—aren't ready to bow out yet.

The 49ers' defensive line looked fine last year until it was beset by injuries. This year the offensive forwards appear to be jelling and the linebacking, thanks to a rookie named Gordon Kelly, is solid.

The squad is the solidest and most versatile Hickey has had, despite the preponderance of youngsters.

But the coach isn't forgetting the powerful opposition in the league's Western Division. All of the other clubs are tough.

That's why Hickey, after the 49ers chalked up 45 points against the Eagles Sunday, gave his team the word:

"It's not enough. We've got to move the ball better. We're still making too many mistakes."

Hickey won't predict anything. But this 49er team could be full of pleasant surprises for fans who have waited a long time.

Crandall Powers Braves Over L.A.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Del Crandall, a catcher who hadn't hit a home run with a man on base all season, and Glen Hobbie, a pitcher who hadn't hit a home run at all, have whittled Pittsburgh's National League lead to 6½ games.

After swatting 16 solo home runs, Crandall connected for a two-run shot that clinched a 4-2 victory for second-place Milwaukee at Los Angeles last night.

The Chicago Cubs trimmed the Pirates 2-1 on Hobbie's two-out homer in the ninth, his ifrst in a four-year major league career.

San Francisco defeated Cincinnati 8-5 in the only other N.L. game scheduled.

In the American League, Baltimore ripped Detroit 9-3 and moved within one game of the idle first-place New York Yankees. Washington walloped Kansas City 9-0, and Boston belted Cleveland 10-7.

Crandall's home run triggered a three-run third for the Braves at Los Angeles against southpaw Sandy Koufax (6-10) while the Dodgers seemed headed for their fifth shutout defeat in 10 games. Right-hander Joey Jay had the champs blanked on four hits until the ninth, then needed Don McMahon's strikeout relief for his fifth victory in 11 decisions.

The Dodgers had scored two unearned runs, on singles by Tommy Davis and Norm Larker, shortstop Johnny Logan's two-out error and a pinch single by Duke Snider, when McMahon put a called strike past pinch-hitter Gil Hodges with the tying run on base.

Hobbie's home run, breaking a 1-1 tie, gave the Cubs their first victory over Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell since April 15, 1958. The big lefty, who had beaten them 10 times in that span, also was tagged for Ernie Banks' 36th home run, in the third inning, while dropping his second in a row for a 9-7 record.

Hobbie gave up the Buc run in the first inning, on a two-out walk and singles by Dick Stuart and Roberto Clemente, then piled up a dozen strikeouts.

Sohner '9' Ties For Lead In Softball

Sohner Tree Service bombarded the 666th Air Division 13-2, in the feature game of last night's San Rafael Men's Softball League doubleheader at Albert Park.

Sid Walker hurled a two-hitter to pace Fairchild to a 13-0 massacre of Jaycees in a "B" League contest.

The Sohner win gives the San Anselmo nine a 2-0 record in league play and moves them into a first place tie with McPhail's. The victory extended the Treemen's winning skein to six.

Jay Leatherwood allowed only three hits and two walks in notching his eighth win of the campaign against two setbacks.

Sohner's scored four times in the fifth and then erupted for eight runs in the sixth to break open what had been a close contest during the first four frames.

Leatherwood and third-baseman Earl Beyer paced the Sohner attack with two hits each while shortstop Ron Jerome contributed a two-run triple. First baseman Jack Phillips turned in the defensive play of the game when he made a diving stab of of foul pop fly to end a 666th rally.

In Wednesday night's action McPhail downed Presidio 3-1 behind Bob Eggleton's four-hit, ,11 strike-out pitching. A two-run homer by Jim Barbeau and a solo round-tripper by Nolan Wilson powered the attack.

Wilson, Rich Curry, Barbeau and Ed Longen each had two hits for McPhail's while defensive stars were Bob Thompson, John Brookman and Frank Ratto.

Wednesday's "B" game was the Post Office outslugging the San Rafael Bushers 9-3.

Tonight the Post Office battles MarVel A. C. in the "B" League opener and Keaton's and Presidio tangle in the "A" League nightcap. The first game starts at 7:30.

National Regatta Tops Bay Area Yachting Weekend

By ALFRED MATSON

The Bay Area sailing buffs this weekend have front row seats for a racing program that runs the gamut from a national championship series to a small boat regatta.

The event of nationwide interest is the Finn Nationals, a five-race series to be contested on Richardson Bay with the first two races being programmed for today. The third and fourth heats are scheduled for tomorrow with the final set on Sunday.

Upward of 20 boats are expected to participate with the present champion, Glenn Foster of Marblehead, Mass., on deck to defend his laurels. The Finn is a 14-foot, 9-inch boat of cat rig, it is extremely fast and tricky to sail and will be the only single-hander to be utilized in the Olympics at Naples, Italy.

TROPHY EVENT

Tomorrow the upper echelon of the Rhodes 33 sailors will engage in combat for the Bob White Trophy. An annual event, the trophy is now in the possession of the St. Francis Yacht Club as Dennis Jordan won it two years ago from the southern California defender.

Their challenge of last year was repulsed by the same wily skipper and again they are back crying for vengeance. The race will start off the St. Francis Y.C. at 1:30 p.m., and will be over the regular channel course.

MORRISON DEFENDS

Dean Morrison will be at the tiller of his St. Francis III in the role of defender and, besides two challengers from the south, local entries have been received from the San Francisco and Sausalito clubs.

The classes will be back in session on Sunday and a large enrollment is expected. The Yacht Racing Assn. will hold the second, and final class regatta with the first race getting underway at 10:30 a.m. The starting line is off the St. Francis Y.C.

The small boaters will confine their activities to the waters off Richmond. It will be a two-race event, morning and afternoon, involves the many classes that race under the burgee of the Small Yacht Racing Assn. and is being sponsored by the Aeolian Y.C. of Alameda.

Stoke's Super Chevy To Race At Half Moon Bay

Half Moon Bay Drag Strip this Sunday will see the Gotelli Champion Speed Shop Machine, world record holder, come out with a brand new engine. The car will be running a supercharged Chrysler engine.

World record holder in its class with a Chevrolet powered engine, the Gotelli Champion ran 176.42 in a standing start quarter mile, with an elapsed time of 8.62. This week will see it attempt the over-all world record.

Among other world record holders from northern California will be the Schrank Brothers of Redwood City, who, two weeks ago at Half Moon Bay set a new world C-dragster record at 162.74. They run a DeSoto engine.

Also appearing will be the top eliminator of last week's Cotati races, Fred Stoke of San Rafael, in a super-charged Chevrolet dragster.

Expected excitement will be in the super stock class, where Gas Ronda will try to regain his crown as king of the stockers, having lost it after 17 weeks. Al Dye of Pacifica, new reigning king of the stockers, will be on hand to defend.

The completely paved, dust-free Half Moon Bay Drag Strip is located 26 miles south of San Francisco on Coast Highway 1, at Half Moon Bay Airport.

Li'l Giants Open Crucial Series

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Tacoma Giants, who open a crucial battle for second place in the Pacific Coast League with Salt Lake tonight, scored two runs in the ninth and earned a split in their doubleheader with San Diego last night. The Padres won the opener 3-0, Tacoma the nightcap 5-4.

Frank Barnes muffled Tacoma with four hits and his Padre partners—Joe Hicks and Cam Carreon—came up with home runs for the opening win. In the second game George Freese clouted a three-run homer to give the Pads a 4-0 lead at the end of the first. The Giants cut it to 4-3 in the seventh. Then a single, a double by Bobby Prescott and another single pulled it out of the fire for the Giants.

3 Youngsters, Vet In Semi-Finals Of U.S. Women's Golf

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Three determined youngsters and a proven veteran headed the semi-final cast in the National Women's Amateur Golf Championship at the Tulsa Country Club course today.

Teeing off in quest of the championship were 38-year-old Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone, Mason City, Iowa; Joanne Gunderson, Kirkland, Wash.; Judy Eller, Old Hickory, Tenn., and surprising Jean Ashley, Chanute, Kan.

The luck of the draw sent Mrs. Johnstone against Miss Ashley and left it up to Miss Gunderson and Miss Eller, two longtime friends, to battle it out for a shot at the title vacated by Barbara McIntire, Lake Park, Fla.

The four competitors faced Oklahoma's hot humid weather as they battled down the stretch. Mrs. Johnstone is a recent winner of the Western championship while Miss Gunderson, 21, won the champion in 1927.

Miss Eller, only 19, is a two-time National Junior champion while Miss Ashley, 21, a University of Kansas graduate, is a former champion in her state.

Detroit Fans To Honor Williams

DETROIT (AP)—"Ted Williams Night" will be held at Briggs Stadium on Sept. 7 when the Detroit Tigers meet the Boston Red Sox.

President Bill Dewitt of the Tigers has arranged a tribute to the Boston slugger.

"He has provided more thrills to fans throughout the nation than any American League player of this generation," said Dewitt.

Detroit's Mayor Louis C. Miriani will proclaim Sept. 7 as "Ted Williams Night." Presentations will be made to the nearly 42-year-old slugger at home plate before the game.

Venturi Shares Lead In Milwaukee Open Tourney

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The two fierce competitors squared off in a personal duel. One scrambled while the other performed with the skill of a surgeon. It wound up in a standoff.

Doug Ford and Ken Venturi matched contrasting styles yesterday and then had to settle for a share of the lead with young Johnny Pott in the opening round of the $30,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament.

Ford battled the course all the way. Venturi, amazed but not jolted by his playing partner's recoveries, had a comparatively easy time.

Ford and Venturi each handed in cards of five under par 31-34-65. Then they stood by as Pott, 24, a Louisiana State grad, blazed home with an 18th hole birdie for a 33-32-65 and a share of the lead.

"I recovered phenomenally," Ford, 38, a veteran from Yonkers, N. Y. said. "I made some bad shots, then came right back with good ones."

He collected five birdies with putts up to 35 feet.

"He was amazing," said Venturi, who talked more about Ford's performance than his own. "It was fantastic."

Bob Goalby, former University of Illinois football player, finished just one stroke off the pace with a 66. Right on his heels was Mason Rudolph, who was all alone with a 67.

Deadlocked with 68s were Cary Middlecoff, the two-time National Open and Milwaukee winner, Ted Kroll, Jerry Barber, Bill Collins, Bobby Brue of Milwaukee and Jim King.

Arnold Palmer, the Masters and U. S. Open champion, was in an eight-way tie at 69.

Rams Rearrange Their Backfield; Arnett At L.H.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jon Arnett returns from slotback to left half for the Los Angeles Rams tomorrow night against Cleveland in the Coliseum.

Coach Bob Waterfield has rearranged his backfield and will have Buddy Humphrey at quarterback; Clendon Thomas at the slotback and Ollie Matson at fullback. This means that Tommy Wilson, who scored the winning touchdown last week as the Rams beat Washington, will be on the bench at the kickoff.

Lou Michaels, former defensive end and then linebacker, starts at offensive left tackle, and if he can handle the assignment the Rams believe they will have solved a pressing problem.

Carroll Dale of Virginia Poly, who played in the All-Star-Baltimore game, will start at right end again in place of Jim Phillips. Dale looked good against the Skins.

Striper Fishing Fast, Furious; In Racoon Strait-Alcatraz Area

STEVENS

Howdy folks! We wonder if the run of striped bass in the Racoon Strait-Alcatraz area will ever come to a stop. Again the action has been fast and furious with the average size of the fish apparently increasing. On Tuesday evening seven party boats left the Berkeley Harbor for the late evening trolling and we were informed that all seven boats came back with limits or near limits. On Wednesday, around 8:30 a.m. one boat was heading back to its home port with limits of bass and one 25 pound sea bass. That report came in over our Halicrafter.

We contacted Doris Marshall and learned that a fair number of the fish unloaded at the dock were in the 20 pound class. Boats are making twice-a-day trips. Using regular salmon trolling gear — three pound sinkers and feathered jigs or Hootchy-Kootchy lures mainly. Doris also told us that while fishing on the flats had slowed down quite a bit, some bass were being taken and the pier (the Berkeley Pier) fishermen were bringing in some nice red-tailed perch.

We verified the reports by contacting still another source, Jimmy Moorman of Lee Anderson's Bait Shop. He reported the boat, R.S.P., taking six limits to 10 pounds on Monday and seven limits to 16 pounds on Tuesday. The Troller had seven limits to seven pounds on Tuesday and the Millie Linn came in with limits for all passengers. Fish ran to 12 pounds.

IN THE upper San Pablo Bay fishing continues to be good with an excessive number of undersized bass predominating. Dowrelio's reported the Dowrelio No. 5 with 40 legal bass to six pounds on Monday and four limits (four anglers) to six pounds on Tuesday. The little Caesar, with three passengers, hooked and brought aboard 115 bass in order to keep seven fish to eight pounds. Most of the action in the upper San Pablo shifted to the Rock Wall area and to Glen Cove.

TALKING WITH Warden Al Giddings of Marin County we were told that very few fishermen are trying the waters for salmon and Halibut in Tomales Bay and Bodega Bay, but the few who have fished have been fairly successful. It is Gidding's belief that a trip to either locale should be well worth the effort to get there.

SALMON TROLLING, generally, is a bit on the spotty side although some fair catches are being made every day. On Tuesday the Lucky Day, with Jimmy Vitero piloting, accounted for eight salmon to 24 pounds and the Sea Horse came in with 10 salmon to 19 pounds. On Monday, the Sea Horse took 10 salmon off Rocky Point with one fish weighing 34 pounds.

THE MONTH-long season on doves opens Thursday, Sept. 1, and Brush, Cottontail and pygmy rabbits also become legal quarry on Sept. 1, but only in certain counties, namely Modoc; Lassen, Plumas; that portion of Siskiyou County lying east of Highway 97 between the north border of Siskiyou County and the town of Weed, and east of Highway 99 between Weed and its junction with Highway 89, and north and east of Highway 89 to the Siskiyou County line; that portion of Shasta County lying north and east of Highway 395.

Bag and possession five rabbits per day, five in possession in the aggregate of all species listed. From Sept. 1 to Jan. 2 in balance of the state not included above. (Jack rabbits, black-tailed or white-tailed, no closed season; no bag limit.

Shooting hours for doves: one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Daily bag and possession limit on doves is 10.

A REPORT from Ray Gardner, of Gardner's Deep Sea Fishing at Princeton on Half Moon Bay is exciting. Ray reports 336 ling cod taken last week, with several of them weighing over 30 pounds. "Limits of rock cod has been the order of the day for the majority of fishermen," writes Gardner. Oddly, we never note any names of Marin County residents in Gardner's Reports, nor in the release from Santa Cruz or Monterey, either. How come?

OUR PREDICTION for the weekend: Your chances of catching a mess of salmon or stripers is in direct proportion to the amount of wind we have. Quiet weather and water—plenty of bass from the Racoon Strait to and including the Richardson Bridge area, China Camp, the Contra Costa side of the San Pablo Bay and in the vicinity of the lower Carquinez Strait. High winds and rough water, slow fishing.

And that's finis for today. See you later!

Ref Smacked In Furious Oakland Bout

OAKLAND (UPI)—Benny (Bandit) Medina of Fresno was credited with a ninth-round knockout over Howard Pasley of San Francisco last night in a free-swinging lightweight bout that even saw Referee Tommy Bosnich catch a stray blow.

The fight almost ended in the eighth when the fighters were warned by Bosnich and Jack Urch, executive officer for the State Athletic Commission, that the bout would be stopped if the rough stuff continued.

Medina was warned about butting in the third and Pasley in the sixth.

Medina grabbed the upper hand in the rough bout in the seventh when he began scoring at will. Pasley grabbed Medina, pushed him back and draped the aggressor over the ropes. Medina roared back with a wild right which connected on the chin—of the referee.

After the wild eighth, during which both men were prematurely sent to their corners, Medina completely dominated the ninth until the fight was halted and ruled a knockout, although there were no knockdowns scored.

Medina scaled 138½ and Pasley 137½.

The monthly pay of a West Point cadet is $111.15.

Early Returns Show Great Deer Season In Prospect

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Coastal deer hunters appear to be off to a much better season than usual, with prospects for a really big year.

The deer kill in the coastal season, indicated by tag returns 18 days after the opening of the season, showed a 26 per cent increase. There were 10,094 tags returned, as compared with 7,997 a year ago.

Only one county of those included in the coastal season had fewer tags returned than a year ago. That was Ventura, with 422 tags so far this year, against 502 a year ago.

Game management officials in the Department of Fish and Game said there were a number of possible reasons for the higher kill but much probably was due to a natural population build-up. Because much of the coastal area is inaccessible for hunting — from locked gates of landowners or brush too thick for hunters to penetrate—hunting has little effect on fluctuations of population in coastal deer herds.

The Department said the opening was slightly cooler than normal. There has been some improvement in access to hunting grounds, with the U. S. Bureau of Land Management posting some property as open to hunting, thereby informing hunters it is public land.

In addition, there were several big burns in the area. This burning of thick brush not only opens the area to hunter entry but provides choice browsing grounds for deer.

Topping all other coast counties in deer kill was Mendocino, with 1,596 tags returned so far, compared to 1,231 at this time a year ago. Other counties' tag returns (1960 figures first, 1959 figures second) included:

Alameda 336-241; Colusa 301-243; Contra Costa 137-78; Fresno 179-167; Glenn 1-1; Humboldt 476-404; Kern 122-99; Lake 706-527; Marin 213-62; Mendocino 1,596-1,231; Merced 139-89; Monterey 994-971;

Napa 451-353; Orange 91, Riverside 59, and San Diego 56 (none in the coast season last year); San Benito 480-437; San Joaquin 30-11; San Luis Obispo 834-691; San Mateo 121-116; Santa Barbara 592-549; Santa Clara 498-345; Santa Cruz 101-86; Solano 75-71; Sonoma 630-371; Stanislaus 242-80; Ventura 422-502 and Yolo 182-146.

Net Playoffs Tomorrow In Sausalito

Eight young Sausalito tennis stars will take to the courts tomorrow in search of four championship trophies in that city's third annual Junior Tennis Championships. The public is invited.

Four matches are on tap at the Christ Church court, beginning at 9:30 a.m. with a Girls-15 title encounter between two unranked youngsters, Betsy Nowlan and Holly Hall. Following at 10:30 a.m. will be the Boys-15 final between second-seeded Fritz Grinsell and unrated Chris Dewees.

After a break for lunch, Girls-18 finalists Ann McIndoe and Marilyn Rayburn will clash at 1 p.m. Ann is seeded No. 2 in the tournament while Marilyn, unranked, powered her way to the finals from the obscurity of the city's beginners' tennis class.

Climaxing match of the day, at 2 p.m., will pit defending City Junior Champion Jim Christiansen against Tom Mathews in the Boys-18 final. This match is expected to provide a stirring test between two sharply contrasting styles of play — Christiansen's soft but consistent ground strokes against Mathews' all-around power game.

Awards for both winners and runners-up will be presented during ceremonies which will follow immediately after the last match. Presentations will be made by John Minton, tournament director and director of the Sausalito summer tennis program.

USC Star Signs Red Sox Contract

OAKLAND (AP)—Dick Matern of USC has signed a bonus baseball contract with the Boston Red Sox, scout Charlie Wallgren announced yesterday.

Terms were not revealed. Matern has been catching and playing first base for a semi-pro team here. The 6-foot 3½-inch athlete also can play the outfield.

Wallgren said the rookie will be assigned to Raleigh of the Carolina League next spring.

Cal Duck Ruling Sidesteps Nat'l Conservation Efforts

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The California Fish and Game Commission has given big club duck hunters a virtual license to shoot all the birds they want this year, thereby sidestepping national conservation efforts taken in view of a shrinking population.

The commission, by a 3-to-2 vote, agreed to permit hunters to transport birds of other hunters, so long as each limit was accompanied by a card giving the name of the other hunter, his license number, the species killed, and the date of the kill.

Jamie Smith, commissioner from Los Angeles, who voted against the proposal, along with William Elser of San Diego, called the action a "subterfuge to get around the double possession limit."

Walter T. Shannon, director of Fish and Game, said the new rule "will negate our law enforcement on a possession limit."

Previously, a hunter has been permitted to have only his own birds in possession.

Commissioner Carl Wente, longtime spokesman for the big club sportsman on the commission, proposed the rule. He said poor limits in the past years have worked hardships on common earriers or persons who are in the business of transporting ducks from shooters on clubs.

The commission adopted a split 67-day season for the year. It was an action which normally would have caused quite a bit of debate. However, in view of the startling action in giving the good duck areas the license to slaughter, it caused little discussion.

Under the commission regulations, the season will run from Oct. 15 to Nov. 20 and, after a 19-day interval, will run from Dec. 10 to Jan. 8. The selection of the split season penalized California out of 15 days of shooting.

The daily bag limit will be six ducks and the possession limit will be six ducks, except for the provision a hunter may transport ducks of all the other hunters he wants.

Exceptions to the seasons and limits will be in the Tule Lake-Lower Klamath areas and the Colorado River areas where seasons will conform with Oregon and Arizona, respectively. In these areas, the season will run for 90 days straight, from Oct. 11 to Jan. 8, with a daily limit of four birds and a possession limit of eight.

NO NIKITA TALK

U-2 Pilot's Wife En Route Home

PARIS (AP) — Barbara Powers, wife of convicted U-2 spy pilot Francis Gary Powers, arrived in Paris today en route from Moscow to the United States.

She failed in an attempt to gain an interview with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to plead for clemency for her husband, who got a 10-year sentence.

She was accompanied by her mother, the family doctor and two lawyers who were with her during the three-day spy trial last week of her 31-year-old husband. Their plane arrived in Paris from Brussels, where it was delayed by mechanical trouble.

She refused to say anything to newsmen at the Paris airport.

Solemn and silent, Mrs. Powers had on the same black dress and black velvet hat she wore on her way to Moscow two weeks ago for her husband's trial. She avoided newsmen at the Brussels airport.

Leaving Moscow, Mrs. Powers, 25, commented: "All I hope is that they get Gary out."

After Powers' conviction and sentencing last Friday, his wife sent a handwriten letter to Khrushchev asking for an interview so she could plead in person for clemency. The Soviet premier is vacationing at Yalta, and Mrs. Powers offered to go there, but aparently Khrushchev did not reply.

In New York City, Powers' father said his son doesn't believe he was shot down. The father quoted him as saying "If I were shot down, there would have been a hollow explosion behind me and orange flash around me."

Oliver M. Powers said he does not believe his son's plane was shot down over Soviet territory.

He added that his son "did not say in court or out of court" what brought him down. The father did not elaborate. "He did not land the plane," the father said.

According to the Soviets, a rocket knocked Powers' plane down.

Asked whether he thought his son was forced down by Soviet aircraft, the father said, "I won't make an comment on that. We did not discuss it."

U.S. Asks Cuba To Spurn Reds

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (UPI)— The United States called on Cuba today to renounce Soviet-Red Chinese intervention in Latin America and accept free elections.

The twin demands came in a U.S. draft resolution scheduled for formal presentation by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter as the hemisphere foreign ministers conference went into its fifth session.

One part of the resolution called for American republics to renounce "all attempts by the Soviet Union and Communist China to interfere in the affairs of Cuba and other hemisphere nations."

The second part asked that hemisphere nations reaffirm at once their support for "honest, periodic and free elections."

The proposal clearly was a slap at the Fidel Castro regime which, despite previous promises, has not held an election in Cuba in 20 months in power.

Excerpts from the U.S. demands circulated among conference delegates early today as they carried on private talks on the Cuban-U.S. deadlock.

Cuba planned to introduce resolutions of its own, "warning" the United States to abandon its alleged policies of "aggression" and to cease interfering with the rights of Latin nations to undertake economic reforms.

The tough wording of the resolutions on both sides left little hope of even a mild reconciliation, even though Cuba's Raul Roa declared in a speech yesterday that his government was willing to "negotiate" the United States.

U.S. officials said flatly no such negotiations were sible until Cuba severed it formal defense alliance Moscow. They added that United States would not t ate any resolution by a meaning Latin state that s to mollify the Castro regim disassociating it from Com ist subversion in the he phere.

Roa charged that Cuba forced to seek the protec of Soviet war rockets bec of the "threat of U.S. ag sion."

He said Cuba could not on its sister Latin republics help, since they cannot m the strength of the U.S.

"The most serious prob faced by the Americas toda not the hypothetical extra tinental intervention but actual and present threat aggression by the governm of the United States," he s Herter said he was confic his Latin colleagues w o u "reach the right conclusio about Cuba's ties with the iet bloc and vote suitable co ter-measures.

He said Roa's speech sho the Castro regime was walk "hand-in-hand" with the ping-Moscow axis and "wil to assist" in the spread of C munism through the he phere.

KIDNAP CHARGE OUT

Carpenter, 35, Faces Child Stealing Charge

A Marin County Municipal Court judge yesterday dismissed a kidnapping charge against Glenn D. Berry, 35-year-old Fairfax carpenter, but bound the ex-convict over to Superior Court on a child stealing charge.

The father of four girls, Berry is accused of luring Stella Johnson, 12, of Marin City into his car Monday on the pretense of needing a baby-sitter.

Stella, who was not molested, said Berry drive her up Mount Tamalpais towards "his cabin in the woods." She jumped out of the car when he slowed down.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. reduced Berry's bail from $10,500 to $5,000.

Undersea Sailors Win Polar Baseball Game

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The "Whitehats," a pickup team of undersea sailors, were undisputed baseball champions of the North Pole today.

The enlisted men of the nuclear submarine Seadragon, who helped guide the ship to the pole through the legendary Northwest Passage, beat the ship's officers, 13-10, in the first ball game ever played at the top of the world.

The ball game was the first order of business after the sub surfaced at the pole shortly before midnight yesterday. Communications between the sub and the Pentagon here were broken off in mid-game, but the final score was learned via a radio relay from the ship to Point Barrow, Alaska, to Honolulu to Washington.

Cmdr. George P. Steele II reported the sub "maneuvered through ice" to where members of his crew rode rafts across 15 feet of "pretty rough" and partly frozen water to reach the polar ballpark.

The baseball diamond was laid out so that a home run would travel "from today into tomorrow and from one side of the world to the other," he said, while a batter would reach base "12 hours later," as time is counted in the United States.

Distance and time have a different meaning at the pole, where the 360 degrees of longitude, the time zones and the international dateline all converge.

LIVING COST PLACED AT $6,000 A YEAR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department calculated today it costs about $6,000 a year to maintain a four-person city worker's family on a modest but adequate living level.

An actual survey of 20 cities showed costs ranging from $5,370 in Houston, Tex., to $6,567 in Chicago.

The exhaustive survey by the departfent's Bureau of Labor Statistics also estimated the income of such a family conservatively is $7,000 to $7,500. It said income typically outstrips budget needs by 15 to 20 per cent.

It said both income and budget costs probably would be lower in smaller cities and towns.

Bon Odori Festival Revival Of Tradition

A Bon Odori Festival is being planned by the Nakayoshi Club of Marin County, Japanese-American social club, for tomorrow night at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley. The public is invited without charge.

According to George Murata of Corte Madera, club president, in old Japanese tradition Bon Odori was an annual dance held to comfort the souls of the deceased. But in modern times the event has taken on the atmosphere of a summer festival, usually in August, when a community gathers for music and fellowship.

Committee heads are Hardi Honda of Tiburon, entertainment; Mrs. Benkichi Yokota of Mill Valley, refreshments; Nike Noguchi and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ozaki of Mill Valley, decorations.

For the Japanese folk dancing the ten-piece Shin Sei band of San Francisco with its four singers will provide music. Masao Segi of Tiburon will be in charge of records, and Tad Kuwatani of Belvedere will handle the microphone.

Festivities will start at 7 p.m. with classical dances, followed by the folk dances, for which Mrs. George Murata of Corte Madera has been the instructor.

Gem Of Kindness

NEW YORK (UPI) — A jewel which has held special significance for mankind over the past 6,000 years is the emerald. This flashing green gem was the Biblical symbol of kindness.

In the Middle Ages, it was believed that a seer could gaze into the depths of the jewel to solve domestic problems.

Teacher's Image

FRED JENNE TAKES BRIDE IN CARSON

Fred Jenne of Mill Valley and Mary Merman of Glen Ellen, were married on Monday in a three p.m. ceremony in the Carson wedding chapel in Carson City, Nev.

Members of both families were present.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Merman of Glen Ellen, is a graduate of the Sonoma Valley Union High School and attended Santa Rosa Junior College for one year before she was employed in her present position with the Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco.

Her husband is the son of Mrs. Aline Jenne and the late Robert Jenne of Tamalpais Valley. His sister is Mrs. Charles (Robaline) Meacham, well known Mill Valley pianist.

He attended College of Marin and was graduated from San Francisco State College with a major in ichthyology. He is employed at a service station and is also connected with the Steinhart Aquarium. He is president of the Steinhart Aquarium Society.

The young couple is living in San Francisco but hopes to reside in Marin County eventually.

George Irvin Engaged To Modesto Girl

The engagement of Joanne Jolliff to George N. Irvin II is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett R. Jolliff of Modesto. George is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Norris Irvin of San Anselmo.

Joanne's father announced the engagement during a recent family gathering in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Jolliff of Modesto. She is also a granddaughter of Mrs. Nellie Jones of Coalgate, Okla. Her sister is Judith Jolliff of Modesto.

The news was revealed to Bay Area relatives and friends at a luncheon which marked George's graduation from San Francisco State College. Guests were the parents of the engaged pair, George's brother Robert, and the Messrs. and Mesdames Thomas Irvin of Richmond and Victor Smith of Orinda.

The future benedict's grandmother is Mrs. Estella Mann of Colorado Springs, Colo.

He is taking graduate work in social science at San Francisco State College. His undergraduate activities at S.F. State included varsity track, orientation-registration, and Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship. At Sir Francis Drake High School he was president of the Honor Society and went out for track.

Joanne, a graduate of Thomas Downey High School in Modesto, is a senior at the Merritt Hospital School of Nursing in Oakland, where she has served as president of her class and of the Nurses Christian Fellowship.

George and Joanne are planning a fall 1961 wedding in the Modesto First Baptist Church.

Libby Lewis Wed To David E. Burmester

Laberta (Libby) Lewis and David E. Burmester of San Anselmo exchanged their wedding vows recently at St. Anselm's Church in Ross with Rev. Donald Kelly officiating at the 1:30 p.m. rites.

Libby's hand was given in marriage by her stepfather, Lee Askins of San Anselmo.

White nylon flowers adorned the skirt of her waltz length bridal gown and edged the neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. An elbow length veil was held in place by a beaded crown. White orchids formed the center of the bride's bouquet.

Rose Del Monte of San Francisco as maid of honor wore a fuchsia taffeta dress with a bell shaped skirt. Her veil was of the same hue. Pale pink and white carnations were in her bouquet.

The bridesmaids were Dorothy Williams of Mill Valley, Janet Lewis of Yakima, Wash., Marcella Dumford and Janice Boe, both of San Anselmo. Their dresses, styled like that of the maid of honor, were of pale pink taffeta and they wore matching veils. Their bouquets were of red and white carnations.

Seven-year-old Michelle McNeil of San Anselmo as flower girl carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink roses and carnations. Her dress of white dotted Swiss had a pink taffeta underskirt.

John Bayliss of San Francisco performed duties of best man at the double ring ceremony.

Ushers were Gavin Coffing of Los Angeles, Tom Christian of San Anselmo, Stephen Easter and William Easter of Dos Palos.

Mrs. Askins wore a cotton lace sheath in a bluish-green shade with a green silk georgette sash and a scalloped neckline for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of green orchids.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Melvin J. Duncan of San Anselmo, chose a beige organza sheath dress with a portrait collar. Her corsage was made of small white orchids.

The Meadow Club setting of the wedding reception, was decked with white flowers in the hallway and around the fireplace.

Champagne glasses formed a delicate alternate to each of the wedding cake's three tiers.

Ellen Easter of Dos Palos was in charge of the guest book at the reception.

Libby and David left by automobile for a 10-day honeymoon at Carmel. Libby wore a three-piece cotton suit in pale green with white hat and white accessories.

The couple will return to an apartment at 1223-B 44th Avenue in San Francisco. Both young people will continue their studies this fall at San Francisco State College. They were graduated in June from College of Marin, and both are alumni of Sir Francis Drake High School. David served two years in the Navy. He has been employed as a salesman at a San Rafael men's store and his bride has worked as a secretary for a San Francisco insurance company.

Libby's father is Bart Gajefski of Seattle, Wash.

The bridegroom's father is Edwin Burmester of San Anselmo. The young man is a grandson of Mrs. Lena Litton of Healdsburg.

Gourmet Hamburgers

Shape ground beef into husky patties and brush with equal parts soy sauce and California Sherry wine. Season with salt and pepper and broil, turning once and brushing with more sauce. Extra good on sesame or poppy seed buns.

Keep It Cold

Ground meat should be placed, loosely wrapped, in the coldest part of the refrigerator. If it is not used within 24 hours, it should be wrapped and frozen for storage.

Enchantment For Jaded Souls To Wear A New Velvet Hat

Come late summer, when the fashion spirit begins to become a bit jaded, there's no faster-acting rejuvenating prescription than a velvet hat. Velvet's color enchantment, its incomparable rich luster and texture, infest the whole costume with a lively wide-awake look of new fashion awareness.

Summer-into-fall hats of boulevard velvet interpret the high, wide and softly feminine silhouette in tall-crowned cloches, often with deftly gathered or pleated brims; bulky pillboxes, and wide-flung Bretons. The upswept tapered line appears in peaked turbans and saucy little topknot caps that tie at the crown tip with a flurry of big bows.

The lustrous, pliant quality of velvet is particularly adaptable to the pleated and tucked crowns and draped brims that achieve the new, towering feeling without an overpoweringly weighty effect.

Colors are magnificent, in glowing solid shades, or handsome tri-tone blends. And there's no greater cosmetic tonic than velvet's halo of color, as intensely glowing as the heart of a fine jewel, reflecting a special radiance of beauty upon a woman's complexion.

Late vacation trip? The traveling-est hat you can own is one of boulevard velvet. With its practical virtues of uncrushability and airborne lightness, it is a "natural" for a traveling role, or for presiding over your town wardrobe.

Let velvet be your new fashion headliner, for the most complimentary story about you that ever was told!

Pro America Luncheon Set For Aug. 30

At the smart new Spinnaker Restaurant in Sausalito, Marin County Unit of Pro America is holding its campaign fund luncheon on Tuesday, Aug. 30. On the evening of that day the resturant will have its official opening. Pro America's members and their guests are thus having a preview of the Spinnaker with its incomparable marine view.

The restaurant doors will open at 11 a.m. and luncheon will be served at 12:30, Mrs. W. T. Cleverdon Jr., chairman, announces. Brief talks will be made by State Senator John McCarthy and Fred Dupuis, candidate for Congressman.

A feature of the program will be a reading from the new state bylaws telling the objectives and purposes of the Pro America. This will be read instead of the Credo. The bylaws state in part: "Pro America is pledged to preserve both the letter and the spirit of the American form of government as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and to the maintenance of our national sovereignty. Pro America is composed of women who are interested in the field of politics and political education and includes members of both large political parties."

Marin unit's general meeting will be Monday, Sept. 12, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Picard.

Mrs. Don Stewart, campaign chairman of California Chapter of Pro America will speak on "How to campaign effectively". An analysis of measures on the November ballot will be made by Judge Sylvester J. McAtee.

The board will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry W. Johnson in Loch Lomond on Sept. 26 at 12:30 p.m. when coffee will be served.

Edith Gibbs Married To George Alpers

Edith Kristen Gibbs and George Jay Alpers were married at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Fairfax Community Church. Rev. Jack Biersdorf and Dr. John J. Canoles officiated at the double ring ceremony. White gladioli and standards of candles decorated ed the sanctuary.

Edie was given in carriage by her father, Faris Hubert Gibbs of San Anselmo.

Her bridal gown was of white silk organza with appliques of taffeta, falling into a chapel train, with a scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. An elbow length veil was held by a lace cap outlined with seed pearls and a white bow. The bride carried a spray of white roses centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Bernice Brown of San Anselmo, and the three bridesmaids, Linda Van Riesen of San Lorenzo, Delamy Murphy of San Rafael, a niece of the bridegroom, and Ulahlee Poppaw, cousin of the bride, wore gowns of pink silk organdy trimmed with pink satin. They had short veiled hats, each trimmed with a pink satin Dior rose. They carried baskets of white daisies with pink ribbon streamers.

Allen Peterson of San Rafael performed best man duties. The ushers were Robert Peterson of San Rafael; James Murphy of San Rafael, nephew of the bridegroom, and Robert Gibbs of San Anselmo, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Gibbs wore a brown and green printed silk sheath dress with a bone velvet hat and accessories, accented by a chartreuse orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. George Alpers of Bayside Acres, San Rafael, chose a green print silk suit.

One hundred and twenty-five wedding guests were received immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. White gladioli and chrysanthemums banked the fireplace and decorated the garden. A three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom formed the center of the bridal table. In charge of the guest book was Donna Johns of Loch Lomond, San Rafael.

The newlyweds left by automobile for a one-week honeymoon in Carmel. Edie's going away attire was a Dior red suit with black velvet hat and black accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Edie is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and attended College of Marin, where she was affiliated with Associated Women Students and was a member of Sementor Gelanes sorority. She is a member of Job's Daughters and has been active in the Mariner Scouts. She is employel by Paul Revere Insurance Co. of San Francisco.

Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Gibbs and Mrs. Reinhardt Elsen, all of Nampa, Idaho.

A fourth generation Californian, Jay is the son of Mrs. Alpers and the late Mr. Alpers. Mrs. David Murphy of San Rafael is his sister. He was graduated from San Rafael High School, where he was made a life member of the California Scholarship Federation. He has studied at the University of California at Berkeley, College of Marin, and Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Ore., preparatory to entering San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

At Lewis and Clark he was affiliated with Lambda Phi Epsilon fraternity and Palatinian Society.

Jay is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Alpers, longtime residents of San Rafael, where Mr. Alpers served as mayor, and the late Mrs. Ella M. Johnson.

Cheese Snowballs

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cream cheese snowballs make a cool summer salad. Drain one 1-pound 14-ounce can of fruit cocktail thoroughly. Blend two 3-ounce packages of cream cheese with ½ teaspoon of grated lemon rind and 2 teaspoons of lemon juice. Beat until fluffy. Stir in drained fruit, shape into 6 snowballs and chill several hours. Serve on crisp greens.

San Rafael Nurse Will Be Panelist

Mary Clark, general duty nurse at San Rafael General Hospital and member of the Marin County Nurses' Association, will be one of five panel speakers at a one-day institute for registered nurses to be held Sept. 19 at Berkeley's Hotel Claremont.

Her topic will be "We Took a Look," related to the institute's theme which is "It's Time To Take a Look."

Nurses from Marin County, along with professional registered nurses from throughout Northern California, will be taking a look at their skills in human relations, public relations and communications.

Moderator will be Mary Goldberg, lecturer in nursing at University of California Medical Center School of Nursing in San Francisco.

Four other panelists will be Ethel Strueben, adviser to the General Duty Nurses Section, American Nurses' Association, with the topic "Resources for the Resourceful;" Mary Arnold, who is currently completing work toward a doctorate in public health at the University of California at Berkeley, "How Do I Know What I Think Until I Hear What I Have to Say;" Fred S. Weisenheimer, director of field services, California Heart Association. "The Nurse as Perceived by Herself and by the Patient;" and Hal Reynolds, legislative advocate for the California State Nurses' Association, "How Well Do Your Public Know Us?"

Following the morning panel discussion, the afternoon session will be devoted to small discussion groups. All registered nurses are invited to attend, said Mrs. Ellen Bergman, president of District 28. Nurses in this area who are interested should call Beacon 5-0056.

Purpose of the institute is for nurses to share their experiences and knowledge with others, for their own professional growth as well as better patient care.

Extreme Strictness In Punishment Is Just As Bad As Over Indulgence

The gentleman had a black eye.

He rushed into my office, shouting, "Look! My son hit me in the eye! He almost knocked me out. I was only going to whip him. I've done it hundreds of times. Why would he turn on me? Is he crazy?"

Then he sat down, breathing heavily.

I asked some questions and a sad story emerged.

This man is an anxious, earnest, middle-aged business leader. He loves his son dearly, but he feels his wife is too indulgent. He has tried to make up for it by being especially strict.

The boy is their only child. Finally, at 15, the lad struck back. He injured his dad's eye. But the injury to both of their souls was greater. The father and the son were shattered emotionally.

Unusual? No. You'd be surprised how many men overdo corporal punishment. Discipline to them is a matter of physical combat. They always win while their sons are little. But their boys grow up. Then they provide a brutal payoff.

How should fathers punish their sons? The way mothers do. They need to show their love for their boys. Without love they have nothing. They need to set up reasonable rules, and be consistent in enforcing them. They need to explain over and over again what is right and what is wrong.

Boys have to learn to be good. They have to be taught patiently. They don't change overnight. Extreme strictness is as bad as extreme indulgence. Constant whippings destroy love.

Many infractions can be cleared up by talking to the boy. Repeated misdeeds may require something stronger. Fathers can punish by depriving their boys of things they want. Or by restricting them. Or isolating them for a time.

Corporal punishment should be reserved for the few really dangerous mistakes the boys make. And no adult should ever whip, spank or hit a teenager.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Can you suggest one general rule to guide parents in punishing their children?"

T. A.

(A) Yes. The rule is always to use the mildest punishment that will teach a particular child the lesson he needs to learn.

Adults To Play Baseball During Labor Day Fete

Registration is being taken this week for the adult baseball game to be held from 10 a.m. to noon, Sept. 5 as the start of the Southern Marin Recreation Center all day schedule of events on Labor Day.

Mothers will play fathers during the morning with a rooters section composed of children cheering the game. Signups for the "tom tom girls" and "cheerleader boys" are also being taken at the recreation center.

A peanut hunt for the "peanut gallery," ages 1 to 70, will be held at noon, followed by a luncheon until 2 p.m., sponsored by the Sparks, the center's women auxiliary group.

During the afternoon from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. a synchronized swimming and diving exhibition, produced by Maria Von Buskirk, will be presented for spectators. The evening's entertainment will be a dance in the main hall.

Milk Prices Due To Go Up Again

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Milk prices in most of California return to higher winter prices next week in the regular seasonal cost increase.

A quart of milk will cost a penny more in Northern California and a half-cent in Southern California from Sept. 1 to March 31.

Summer milk prices are lower because the cattle are on natural feed instead of the costlier dry feeds.

Policeman To Study

Sgt. David F. Cooper of the Sausalito police will enter the Concord Police Academy Sept. 26 to take a five-week training course. He will study police investigation procedures and records, criminal and related laws, police tactics and firearms and public and race relations.

Reservists Due Return To Marin

Nine Marin County Air Force Reservists are scheduled to return to their civilian occupations Monday after participating in Brightstar-Pinecone III, largest airborne exercise in the history of the nation.

The gigantic war game which involved the airlift and paradrop of some 12,000 paratroopers of the 82nd and 101st Airborne Divisions, together with 600 tons of heavy equipment, was held in the Fort Bragg, N.C. area this week.

Marin participants were Billy C. Means, Troy C. Rhodes, Willard H. Stell, John A. DeCastro, Thomas E. Burford, and Lloyd B. Bowen, all of Novato; Oscar A. Culp and Sidney T. Emison of San Anselmo and Boleslaw J. Bator of San Rafael.

Service Station Changes Hands

Jessie A. Jones has purchased the lease of the Shell Oil Station at 77 East Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, previously leased by Daniel D. Mapes under the name Dan's Shell.

Jones worked for the American Asbestos Co. in San Francisco prior to leasing the station, and was in the Air Force from 1954 to 1956 based at Hamilton Air Force Base. He lives with his wife, Constance, and two children, Debra, 18 months, and Donald, 7 days, at 180 Locust Avenue.

Mapes will leave early in September on a European trip with his wife, Yvonne, and daughter Lee, 13. He has had the station for six years, and lived at 21 Lomita Drive.

Lutherans Plan Teen-Age Program

A special week's program for teenagers begins Sunday at the Marin Lutheran Church in Corte Madera at 7 p.m.

Called "Youth Week," the program will be initiated with a pot luck supper at 6 p.m. Sunday, with a motion picture to be shown entitled, "America for Me," following the meal.

Movies dealing with teenage problems will be presented during the evenings throughout the week, as well as Bible studies in the book of First John, announced pastor George O. Loftness.

The activities will conclude Thursday with a "mystery night," said Rev. Loftness.

Boy Who Broke Wrists Was On MMWD Land

A "tree house" from which 11-year-old Richard Patrick Cordone was forced by strange boys to jump Wednesday, breaking his wrists, was on Marin Municipal Water District property on Reservoir Hill at the end of Reservoir Road rather than on the family property at 918 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, according to the boy's father Marius John Cordone.

Evidently built some years ago, the tree refuge is an attraction to youngsters who might get into further trouble there and it should be destroyed, Cordone said.

Miller Tells Choices For Harbor Group

Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) this week nominated 10 North Coast citizens —two were Marin County men —for appointment to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

Miller's San Rafael nominee was Harold Morgan of San Rafael, president of an industrial machinery supply firm. Morgan lives at 230 Summit Avenue. He also nominated Samuel W. Gardiner, attorney, of 1010 B Street.

Heads Construction

Jerome M. Kushins of 51 Manderly Road in the Loch Lomond area of San Rafael is president of Kushins, Inc., which has started construction of a half-million-dollar shoe manufacturing plant in the new Santa Rosa Industrial Park.

LARKSPUR LUMINARY'S
SMALL SECLUDED ESTATE
$29,950
Interestingly designed, highly individual, sturdily built, this new Larkspur ilsting is a proud addition to our roster of residences. Expect to find a kind of seclusion and quiet privacy surrounding this home that is becoming rare on the market. The dwelling features 2 bedrooms and a small den, 2 baths and huge living & dining area that could accommodate 40 friends with ease. There is a plenitude of cabinets and storage space, and you will find easy parking facilities for gatherings.
Now, this beam ceiling, wood & brick home is only 6 yrs. old, built by a confident contractor, and could be easily enlarged. There is a pool site aching for swimming & splashing.
Actually, about 4 blks. from the Greyhound, shops 'n' schools. This residence has the seclusion of much more expensive properties you would expect to find in Kentwoodlands or Fairhills. May we make an appointment to show you this unique property today?

A Home Buyer's Guide To BETTER VALUES

real joy to show! Better than new condition! Three bedrooms and two baths, dining ell, hardwood floors, double carport, offered for only $19,950!

B
wise! Why pay rent, when a small down payment will enable you to own your own modern three bedroom two-bath home in one of the best areas, close to schools, bus and shopping! Reverse plan, with beautiful garden and patio off the spacious living-dining room and kitchen. Only $2,000 down! Price $20,500!

C
this one right now! A tree-shaded, rock-walled patio, a cozy, two-bedroom hillside retreat, immaculately kept, and it can be yours for only $21,500! Owner will help finance!

D
stands for DARNED good buy! Move in right now! Close-in San Rafael, near schools and shopping! Over 1800 square feet of living area on two levels! Three bedrooms, two baths, a huge rumpus room, large living-dining room combination, and a modern kitchen with breakfast area. New FHA loan of $18,100 to a qualified buyer. Asking $22,500!

E
stands for EICHLER, of course! No other modern home design has won such wide acclaim from todays homemakers! Wide expanses of glass from the living room, dining area and family room to the sheltered patio and lawns. Plenty of privacy, three bedrooms and two baths, double garage, radiant heat, and many other features. Should go as high as $18,500 on a new FHA loan to a qualified buyer! Full price only $22,000!

F
FHA special! $3,600 down puts you in this TERRA LINDA OAKS beauty! This is the desirable FAMILY ROOM model with the BBQ and fireplace! Electric kitchen and dishwasher, of course! Three bedrooms and two baths, hardwood floors, double garage, and all in immaculate condition. Beautifully landscaped — with room for a pool! $24,500!

G
but this is a bargain! Owner transferred before he could move into his brand-new Heers Bros. home just off Lucas Valley road! Four bedrooms, two baths, full electric kitchen, double garage, and the owner is anxious! Any one can assume this big GI loan of $21,200! Asking $26,750! Will help!

H
HOW can you beat this one? Literally thousands of dollars of professional landscaping on an extra large lot situated with perfect privacy! Immaculately kept, this three bedroom plus family room home offers excellent financing, an assumable 5¼% loan of $17,650! Full price, only $26,950!

I
Imagine this! An assumable GI loan of $22,100 at $162 per month including EVERYTHING! and that means built-in electric range, oven, refrigerator-freezer, disposal, dishwasher, fan-and-hood with radio, washer-dryer, draperies, and oh, yes! a three bedroom, two bath home with large living room, family room, fully landscaped patio, and big double garage separated from the house by an attractive breezeway! It's all yours for $27,500!

J
Just about the best buy in all the Forbes area of San Rafael! Split-level, with three bedrooms, two baths, living room and dining ell and electric kitchen on the main floor, and a fourth bedroom, bath and huge family room with a second fireplace on the lower level. Built by a bridge-builder only five years ago, and built to last as long as a bridge! Fully insulated walls and ceilings, three-coat plaster interiors, and many other construction features not found in ordinary homes! See it NOW! Owner will carry first loan up to $27,000 and is asking only $32,950.

K
A KING-SIZED VALUE! No other home in all of ROSS has the charm and quality of this two bedroom English cottage! Almost a half-acre with redwood grove, oaks, madrones, dogwood, and many other trees, and a fabulous garden of camellias, rhododendron, azalea and ivy, extensively sprinklered, many winding paths, this paradise requires little or no care. The home is solidly constructed, 2x6 framing thruout, with hewn ceiling beams, and antique leaded glass windows, so seldom seen today. The fireplace is the famous "HEATILATOR," and the heavy cedar shake roof keeps the home cool all summer. Kitchen, dining ell, and two and a quarter baths complete the picture! Now come and see it! Asking $37,500!

L
LARGE home! LARGE value! LARGE lot! FOUR bedrooms — big living room — separate dining room — modern electric kitchen — huge family room with its own separate fireplace — big garage — 800 square feet of storage area — three big, complete baths — over 2500 square feet of living area plus garage & storage area! ½ acre plus! Yet the price is moderate! Only $42,000! Excellent financing available!

Motor Vehicle Tax Forms Due

Tax forms for highway motor vehicles with taxable gross weight of more than 26,000 pounds must be filed for the year started July 1 by next Wednesday, according to a warning from Joseph Cullen, Director of Internal Revenue for the San Francisco District.

Returns must be filed and tax due paid, Cullen said, on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the vehicle is first used. Rate for a full tax year is $1.50 per 1,000 pounds of taxable weight.

MARIN CADET WITH NEW WEAPON

Cadet George C. DeGraff (right) of Hayden, Ariz., coaches classmate, Cadet James M. Seltzer of Mill Valley, as he prepares to fire the new NATO M-60 light machine gun during a training exercise at Camp Buckner, the summer training site of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. Cadet Seltzer, 19, son of Mrs. Muebelle H. Seltzer,, 15 Plymouth Ave.,, Mill Valley, is a 1958 graduate of Tamalpais High School.

Show Of Pets Set Tomorrow

A children's pet show will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. tomorrow at Brown's Hall on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley sponsored by the Homestead Valley Improvement Club.

Prizes will be given in all categories which include dogs, cats, fish, birds, insects, rodents, reptiles, amphibians and mollusks. Prizes will also be given for unusual qualities such as the longest tail, shortest ears, fattest, thinnest, oldest and most colorful.

Rules require that owners be between 4 and 17, the owner must be able to describe the pet's habitat and food, and pets must be domesticated or tame and under control in an assigned space. Entry fee is 25 cents.

Judges for the event will be S. Thompson Walker of the Junior Museum of Marin, Dr. H. P. Boyd, Mill Valley veterinarian, and Mrs. Patricia Da Mazio of Wilton's Pet Shop.

Higher Court Due Petaluma Rancher Manslaughter Case

Petaluma rancher Elmer J. Hannan has been bound over to Marin County Superior Court on a felony manslaughter charge.

The 55-year-old Hannan, who also owns a riding academy in Petaluma, is charged with the death of his wife, sister and mother in an auto accident in Novato last May 13.

He is accused of gross negligence. His car snapped a power pole about a mile north of Novato on Highway 101, blacking out several hundred Marin homes and knocking a radio station off the air.

Victims of the collision were his wife, Freda M. Hannan, 53; his sister, Mrs. Genevieve Beffa, 50, and his mother, Rose C. Hannan, 75.

They were driving home after attending a funeral when the accident occurred.

'Anything Goes' On Last Two Nights

Closing two performances of "Anything Goes!" long-run musical hit at Sausalito's Gate Playhouse, are tonight and tomorrow at 8:30 p.m.

Reta Bowen, Sal DeValle, Gordon Wood, Skip Rognlien and John Rose head the cast of 30 in the Cole Porter musical.

Enlists In Navy

Robert Michael Barnes, 17, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edgar Barnes of 108 California Avenue, San Rafael, enlisted in the Navy at the Marin County Navy Recruiting Station located at 1116 Fourth Street, San Rafael. He has been sent to the Naval Training Center in San Diego for nine weeks of recruit training.

Kentfield School Registration Set

Pupils new to the Kentfield School District can register at all three schools next Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to noon, Supt. Harold R. DePue said today.

Eligibie kindergarteners are those children who were four years old by last Dec. 1. First-graders must have reached their fifth birthdays by the same date. Proof of age must be presented for entering kindergarteners.

All seventh and eight graders will attend the A. E. Kent School, Depue said, and bus transportation will be provided for those living in the area between Wolfe Grade and Highway 101.
